

BIEBER FEVER STILL NOT OVER?

Justin Bieber and Selena Gomez have not been the best of friends till date. With a rocky relationship and a lot of bad blood, the problems between them still seem to linger. When asked about The Weeknd, the 22 year old pop star replied that he cannot listen to The Weeknd at all. However, Selena Gomez, allegedly, asked for Justin's blessing for her new relationship.

Justin Bieber, has on a separate occasion, allegedly, indicated that Selena follows a pattern while dating men. And that she only finds the artists she can collaborate with in order to create musical wonders and associate with them in order to increase her popularity. Justin is probably referring to Nick Jonas, Zedd and himself with the statement.

NO INTEREST IN HOLLYWOOD?

'Dangal' star, Aamir Khan, expressed his views by saying that Hollywood does not interest him. The actor added, "I have a relationship with the audience here for last 25-26 years and I cherish and give a lot of value to it." The 51 year old actor explained that working for Hollywood was never in his career graphs, but it does not mean that he is adamant of not working in international films. In fact, if he finds an interesting film he might consider.

After expressing his lack of interest in Hollywood, he has also explained how it is not necessarily a bad thing. Is Aamir trying too hard not to offend the actors who chose to work for Hollywood?
