Gel Manicure @ Farzana Shakil's

Gel manicures have been winning hearts all around the globe for a while, and Farzana Shakil's Makeover Salon is proud to be one of the first salons to offer this service in Bangladesh. Gel nail polish is the way forward in makeup technology; it does not get chipped, providing a rich shine and fresh look for a long time. One does not have to worry about losing luster of their favourite nail colours. Gel manicures are ideal for brides-to-be, working women, and indeed women of all ages and tastes who want their nails to be perfect all the time. The special manicures are available in a variety of colours that are 'IN' for the season.

Gel manicures will be available in the Manicure-Pedicure and Spa sections at all outlets of Farzana Shakil's Makeover Salon from February 1, 2017 onwards.

NEWS FLASH

Cycling at Cox's Bazaar Marine Drive Road

To promote slogans like "Dekhun Bangladesh, Janun Bangaldesh", cyclist Mohammad Abul Hossain, Mohammad Rubel and travel writer Mansur Aziz decided to cycle their way from Cox's Bazaar to Teknaf via the Marine Drive Road on 28 December, 2016.

To commemorate the Bangladesh Tourism Year, sightseeing operator Pathik Limited arranged the cycling campaign. The event was led by Mohammad Abul Hossain, to popularise Cox's Bazaar and the Marine Drive Road, to the people of the world.

The campaign was divided into two episodes, with the first being cycling from Cox's Bazaar to Inani beach and the second episode involving cycling from Inani towards Teknaf - a total of 87km.

The experienced cyclists commented that the Marine Drive is perfect for international level cycling. In fact, international cycling competitions could also be arranged at Marine Drive. According to them, if this road could be popularised, we could be expecting an increase in the influx of foreign tourists in Bangladesh.
