During holidays, my family and I often become tourists, traveling the roads less traveled by, in Bangladesh. Last year during the Eid holidays, we started our journey from Chittagong and headed to our destination, Sylhet. Other than the impressive developments in the region, namely the resorts attracting many from around the world, Bichanakandi, located in Sylhet, stole my heart.

The serenity, the jaw dropping sceneries and the peaceful boat rides -- very rare experiences indeed! Bichanakandi could easily highlight Bangladesh on the map, as one of the most beautiful tourist spots in South Asia, if not the world.
