

GUILDY AS CHARGED!

The Screen Actors Guild Awards have begun, starting on January 29 at Shrine Auditorium, Los Angeles. Manchester by the Sea will likely take home a lot of the awards as it leads with four nominations. Fences and Moonlight are both up for three awards each. In the TV categories, "The Crown", "Game of Thrones", "Stranger Things", "Westworld" and "The People v. O.J. Simpson: American Crime Story" are all expected to win big!

.....
Source: Internet

Sushant Boycotts RAJPUT

Following the assault and the terror committed by the Rajput Shiv Sena on the sets of 'Padmavati' Sushant Singh Rajput has dropped "Rajput" from his name on Twitter. The actor tweeted, "We would suffer till the time we're obsessed with our surnames. If you're that courageous, give us your first name to acknowledge. #padmavati."

Sushant has been an avid supporter of the judgement of this attack, in the film fraternity like many others, namely, Ranveer Singh, Deepika Padukone, who are both stars of the film "Padmavati", Mahesh Bhatt, Mukesh Bhatt, Rajkumar Gupta, Naseeruddin Shah, Aniruddha Roy Chowdhury, Ram Madhvani and Tisca Chopra.

.....
Source: The Times of India

Huma Qureshi ON BOLLYWOOD FAVORITISM

The "Badlapur" and "Jolly LLB" actress Huma Qureshi has stated that, "to say that there is no favoritism in Bollywood would be a lie, hence I often feel the need to have some guidance from an 'elder person' to cut through the nepotism which runs in Bollywood". "The fact is, yes, there is nepotism. One will be lying if one said that there is no nepotism. There definitely is. But it is there in every walk of life. When I say that, I don't want to take away anything from a lot of my friends who are also from the industry," Huma said in a recent interview.

.....
Source: The Times of India