Arrested and are now in jail, while Shamsher Fakir is on the run.

Meanwhile, the tribunal yesterday deferred the date to March 8 to decide whether it will frame charges against five Pataakhali men for allegedly committing crimes in the district during the 1971 Liberation War.

It deferred the date as the chairman of the tribunal Justice Anwarul Haque is now undergoing treatment abroad and a full bench is a must to give such decision, said prosecutor Rezia Sultana Chaman.

On January 9, the tribunal fixed yesterday after prosecution and defence counsels completed their charge submission. Accused Esaahq Shikder, Abdul Goni Hawlader, Md Awal alias Awal Moulavi, Abdus Sattar Pyada, and Solaiman Mridha of Sadar upazila are in jail.

Masked men vandalise Taqi Mancha

One of the organisers injured in N'ganj

A CORRESPONDENT, N'ganj

Masked vandals allegedly vandalised the stage of "Santrash Nirmul Taqi Mancha" at Shaheed Minar in Chashara of the city and injured at least one organiser on Wednesday evening.

The attack took place after the organisers of the "Taqi Mancha" finished a sit-in and a candle light vigil commemorating fourth anniversary of the killing of Narayanganj schoolboy Tanwir Muhammed Taqi and demanding perpetrators of the killing be brought to justice, said the organisers.

Fifty nine organisations in a joint statement yesterday condemned the attack and demanded arrest of the assailants.

Dhiman Saha Jewel, general secretary of Narayanganj Sangskritik Jote, was injured in the attack and received treatment at Narayanganj General Hospital.

Dhiman was given treatment for injuries, caused possibly by sharp weapons, in his right hand and the face, said Adnan, a duty doctor at the hospital.

Around 7:30pm, nearly eight to ten attackers wearing masks with sharp weapons swooped on the organisers, seven to eight in number, who were finishing up after speakers and attendees of the programme had left, said Dhiman.

The thugs tore up the banner of the programme and stamped on the candles, he said, adding that they tossed the sound equipment at the organisers and assaulted anyone who resisted.

However, the attack might have been carried out over personal feud, said Asaduzzaman, officer-in-charge of Narayanganj Sadar Model Police Station.

He said the police provided adequate security during the event, but the attack was launched after the conclusion of the programme when their personnel had left the scene.

Earlier, speakers during the event accused local Awami League lawmaker Shamim Osman and his nephew Ajmeri Osman for Taqi's killing.

Taqi's father cultural activist Rafiur Rabbi, who is convener of the "Taqi Mancha", also accused the local lawmaker and his nephew for his son's killing and demanded arrest of Ajmeri.

Halim Azad, member secretary of the "Mancha", alleged that Taqi was killed to silence his father Rabbi who is vocal against the Osman family's corruption.

On March 8, 2013, two days after he went missing, the body of Taqi was found floating in the Shitalakhyia river.

ACC sources said it found irregularities in the recruitment process at BR (Eat Zone) between 2010 and 2012.

It filed the cases between 2012 and 2013 against Mridha and many others.

Mridha was caught with Tk 70 lakh inside the Pilkhana headquarters of the Border Guard Bangladesh in April 2012.

He was suspended on April 15, 2012. The money had allegedly been collected from railway job seekers.
