

TAHSAN'S Valentine's Day

Tahsan will have a very busy Valentine's week as he has a lot of upcoming projects scheduled for release. The song "Tomar Chokher Shohor" is written by Snehashish Ghosh and directed by Rezwan Sheikh. This song will be featured in "Megher Golpo" by Mahmudur Rahman.

"Muhurto" is another song expected to be released this month. The lyric video of the song has been published on YouTube and it has been well received by fans. Tahsan's new telefilm "Tomar Pichu Pichu" alongside Bidya Sinha Mim will be aired on BanglaVision on Valentine's Day at 8:45 pm. Another telefilm "Amar Golpe Tumi" will be aired at 9 pm on NTV. Fans will have a tough time deciding which to watch!

SHAKIB KHAN STILL THE KING

After passing some rough time in between, Shakib Khan had finally turned his luck around with his blockbuster "Shikari" last year. One of his most talked about films this year is "Nobab". It is a collaboration between Bangladesh and India, and Shubhasree Ganguly stars alongside Shakib. The film is directed by Joydeep Mukherjee. "I sincerely believe that 'Nobab' will receive more love than 'Shikari' from the audience", said Shakib. Meanwhile, Shakib Khan got nominated for the Best Actor category in the Bangla Filmfare Awards.

NUSRAT FARIA & AREFIN SHUVO Starring in "Premi o Premi"

Nusrat Faria and Arefin Shuvo recently starred in "Premi o Premi", which was released yesterday. The film was directed by Zakir Hossain Raju and is said to be doing very well in theatres. The trailer of the film along with some of the songs were praised by critics for their presentation. "I have really worked hard for this film", Shuvo said, "I am sure the new generation will like it". Nusrat Faria seemed excited about the film as she stated, "The audience will love it. Everyone should watch it as we will give you something completely new."
