Reckless driving leads to death

Doctor killed in city, mother cries by boy in Tangail

A doctor was killed in a city, and his mother is crying by the body of his son in Tangail.

A 25-year-old doctor was killed after a bus rammed the CNG-run van he was travelling in on North-South Road in Tangail.

The accident happened about 100 metres away from her college.

Transport strike for 'killer' driver

STAR REPORT

Road transport workers have started enforcing an indefinite strike in 10 southern districts this morning, five days after a bus driver was sentenced to life imprisonment for his reckless driving killing five people in 2011.

The strike comes at a time when a government-supervised survey says at least 64 people die from injuries suffered in traffic accidents every day. The survey, titled Bangladesh Health Injury Survey-2016, was revealed earlier this month.

The transport leaders called the strike, terming the February 22 verdict inappropriate. They are also demanding a "proper trial" of Jamir Hossain, the convicted bus driver.

Talking to The Daily Star yesterday, actor Ilias Kanchan, who has been campaigning for road safety for years,
