Check irregular migration to Europe

EU urges Bangladesh
STAFF CORRESPONDENT
 The European Union (EU) wants Bangladesh to check its people's irregular migration to Europe as it leads the fortune seekers to exploitation and financial burdens.
 "We want irregular migration to reduce...there is hardly any success story for those who use illegal channels to migrate," said EU Ambassador and Head of Delegation to Bangladesh, Pierre Mayaudon, yesterday.
 "Each vulnerable migrant is prey to human trafficking...they remain indebted," he said.
 Pierre Mayaudon was addressing the launch of a safe migration awareness-raising project at the capital's Gangabandhu International Conference Centre.
 The International Organization for Migration (IOM) will lead implementation of the 14-month project in partnership with local NGOs with support from the European Readmission Capacity Building (EURCAP) Facility.
 There were at least 21, 570 irregular Bangladeshis in Europe in 2015, says Eurostat, statistical division of EU.
 Pierre Mayaudon said EU welcomes regular migration from Bangladesh. "In 2016, European Union has given permanent residency to 20,000 Bangladeshis," he said. He suggested robust awareness programme and reintegration of the irregular migrants at home.
 Foreign Secretary Shahidul Haque said conflicts, crisis, poverty and people's desire for exploration are some of the factors leading to outbound migration.
 Expatriates' Welfare Secretary (in-charge) Javed Ahmed, Berta Fernandez, senior project manager of EURCAP in Brussels; IOM Project Manager Peppi Kiviniemi Siddiq, among others, spoke.

RU journalism teachers, students unhappy with Sifat murder case verdict

OUR CORRESPONDENT, RU
 Students and teachers of mass communication and journalism department of Rajshahi University yesterday expressed their dissatisfaction over the verdict in a case filed over the death of Wahida Sifat, a student of the department.
 They also formed a human chain in front of the department demanding reconsideration of the verdict of a Dhaka court which on Monday sentenced Mohammad Asif -- Sifat's husband -- to 10 years' imprisonment for "provoking her to commit suicide".
 Sifat was found dead at her in-laws' house in Mahishbathan area of Rajshahi city on March 29, 2015. A murder case was filed accusing Asif and his parents. The case was later handed over to the Speedy Trial Tribunal, which began the trial proceedings on November 11 last year.
 Speakers at the human chain said the second autopsy report clearly proved that it was a "murder".
