SONARGAON, N'GANJ Earth filling stopped, DC tells HC

Deputy Commissioner of Narayanganj Rabbi Miah yesterday told the High Court that earth filling in croplands and wetlands in Sonargaon upazila had been halted. As the DC did not specify exactly when the earth filling was stopped, the HC asked him whether he was sure about it. Rabbi said he would submit a compliance report to the court if it wanted. The HC asked the DC to submit a

6-MONTH CAMPAIGN ON GOVT'S DEV INITIATIVES Govt to use community radios for publicity

PARTHA PRATIM BHATTACHARJEE
The government has embarked on a six-month campaign using community radios as tools to publicise its development projects. It has asked all the 17 community radios, in operation now, to air programmes on "10 special initiatives of Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina" for the length of time. Bangladesh Betar will coordinate the programmes with financial support from the information ministry. A letter in this regard was sent to the radios last month, in which Bangladesh Betar Deputy Director

ABM Mahbubur Rahman said the Department of Films and Publications would provide the contents to be aired. The letter also specified that the contents would focus on Ekti Bari Ekti Khamar project, Ashrayan project, Digital Bangladesh, education assistance programme, women empowerment, electricity in every household, community clinic and mental health, social safety net programme, flourishing investment and environment protection. Community radios have an obligation to broadcast development activities of the government,

Fresh census of Rohingyas begins

Govt to gather info about those who entered Bangladesh recently
OUR CORRESPONDENT, Cox's Bazar
The government yesterday started counting the number of Rohingyas who took shelter in Cox's Bazar district on fleeing a four-month army crackdown beginning in October last year in neighbouring Myanmar's Rakhine state. The Bangladesh Bureau of Statistics (BBS) deployed 200 trained teams of two, one supervisor and one enumerator, since 8:00am to initially cover Ukhia and Teknaf upazilas before moving on to Cox's Bazar sadar, Ramu and Chakaria. Expected to complete by March 10, the census is part of a government plan to relocate the refugees to Noakhali's
