CMCH asked to treat Indian citizen

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

A Chittagong court yesterday directed the Chittagong Medical College Hospital authorities to provide psychiatric treatment to an Indian citizen who had been in jail for about three years and a half after "losing his passport" while visiting Bangladesh.

Chittagong Judicial Magistrate Hossain Tareq Reza passed the order after his lawyer lodged a petition, seeking treatment of Jalal.

The 45-year-old man from Shiliguri lost his bag bearing his passport and other necessary documents in Chandraghona Paper Mill area of Kaptai while he was on a visit on October 27, 2013.

Police shown him arrested in a case for trespassing in the country after locals conveyed the matter to police. Later, he was put in prison. After knowing the matter, several lawyers led by TR Khan petitioned the court, seeking bail of Jalal. He was granted bail on February 27 in custody of the lawyer.

To send him back to his country, the lawyer already talked to the Indian Assistant High Commission in Chittagong and deputy commissioner (DC) of Chittagong.

The lawyer, TR Khan, said in the last three years, no one testify for Jalal. His mental health condition has deteriorated as he stayed in jail for a long time, he added.

As per law, if a foreign national intrudes into a country, police must inform it to the embassy and the DC. Later, the person can be pushed backed. But for Jalal, no rules were followed, said the lawyer.

Luxury car seized

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Customs intelligence officials yesterday seized a luxury car which was allegedly brought into the country abusing diplomatic privileges.

Earlier, the vehicle was handed over illegally to a former employee at The Czech Republic Consulate in Dhaka after it was brought using the duty-free benefit, said Moinul Khan, director general of Customs Intelligence.

passed the order after Attorney General Mahbubey Alam said he needed to talk to Rajuk for knowing its stand about the BGMEA building.

Earlier in the day, the apex court asked the attorney general for Rajuk's stand over this issue. BGMEA authorities on December 8 last year submitted the review petition and sought three years' time for demolishing the complex.

The SC on November 8 last year released the full text of its verdict in which the apex court upheld the HC judgment that ordered BGMEA to immediately demolish, at its own cost, the 15-storey building constructed illegally on the Begumbari canal and Hatirjheel Lake.

Otherwise, Rajuk will do it within 90 days of receiving the order and realise the cost from BGMEA, it said.

Women's participation must increase for gender parity

Views exchange meeting told

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Speakers at a views exchange meeting yesterday said it is vital to ensure equal participation of women in every sector in order to achieve gender equality.

The representatives from different professions and professional bodies also said males have to change their mindset towards women, and get involved in non-paid jobs such as household chores to ease the burden of females involved in different professions.

Nari Sramik Kantha, a platform of woman workers and workers' association, in association with Karmojibi Nari and German-based Friedrich Ebert Stiftung (FES) Bangladesh, arranged the event at the capital's The Daily Star Centre to mark International Women's Day to be celebrated on March 8.

One-third women participation in all sectors, including trade unions, is required to achieve the goal of equal gender participation by the year 2030, said the discussants.

Reading out a written statement, Karmojibi Nari Executive Director Rokeya Rafique said in order to ensure equal participation of women, a woman-friendly atmosphere has to be created at workplace.

Commitment from political and social leaders is required to ensure a gender-balanced society, said Shirin Akhter, lawmaker and convener of Nari Sramik Kantha.

Speaking as the chief guest, Information Minister Hasanul Haq Inu said the government needs to play a key role while trade unions will have to come forward to ensure the gender balance.

Jafrul Hassan, joint secretary general of Bangladesh Institute of Labour Studies; Farida Yasmin, general secretary of Jatiya Press Club; Franziska Korn, resident representative of FES Bangladesh; Abu Hena Mustafa Kamal, director of the Department of Labour; Tania Hoq, head of women and gender studies department of Dhaka University; and Prof Shormind Neelormy of economics department of Jahangirnagar University, among others, spoke.

COMILLA CITY ELECTION

Five seek candidacy for mayoral post

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Comilla

Five mayoral and 187 councillor aspirants have filed nomination papers to contest in the March 30 Comilla City Corporation election.

Returning officer Rakib Uddin Mandal unveiled the information a few hours after the deadline of filing applications for candidacy expired at 5:00pm yesterday.

Mayoral candidates can take political party's symbol or run independently, but councillor aspirants have to contest independently.

Of the mayoral candidates, Anjum Sultana Shima takes the ruling Awami League's banner, while Monirul Haque Sakku will vie as the BNP candidate.

Shima was a former councillor for reserved wards no. 7, 8 and a panel mayor of Comilla City Corporation, while Sakku was the immediate past mayor and incumbent joint secretary of BNP's Comilla south district unit.

Talking to journalists separately, both of them demanded a congenial atmosphere for a free and fair election.

The rest of the mayor aspirants are Shirin Akhter of Jatiya Samajtantrik Dal (JSD-Rab), Shafiqur Rahman of Progressive Democratic Party, and independent candidate Mamunur Rashid.

The nomination papers will be scrutinised on March 5-6, while the last date of withdrawal of candidacy is March 14.

This will be the first city corporation election under the newly formed EC led by KM Nurul Huda.

The intern, however, became angry and started rebuking him. Other interns then rushed in and started beating Rouf. They even forced him to squat by holding the ears and made him seek apology by touching their feet. The interns, later, confined him to a room, Bina told The Daily Star earlier.

As the news spread, police got him out of the room. Afterwards, when Rouf went to the director's room to complain, the interns also rushed there and beat him, said police.

Interns, however, had alleged Rouf misbehaved with them.

"We hope the new election commission will hold the next parliamentary election fairly showing honesty, integrity, neutrality and boldness," said the paper.

Majumdar also came up with a set of recommendations for the new EC including updating voter list and delimitation of electoral constituencies.

Shujan President M Hafizuddin Khan chaired the function, where former cabinet secretary Ali Imam Majumder, Prof Asif Nazrul of Dhaka University and columnist Syed Abul Maksud, spoke.

from where others distributed those to their clients, police said.

They charged Tk 1,000 to Tk 5,000 per person, Baten said.

By leaking the questions, Rafiqul wanted to help the students of his coaching centre, "Gyankosh", in Kamalpur, achieve higher grades and also earn some cash from the clients, the DB official said.

He said, "There will be a negative impact on the country's education system if teachers are involved in such acts."

Replying to a query, Baten said the group had no link with the six polytechnic and diploma students whom detectives arrested on February 14 for "selling fake questions".

Police are looking for those responsible for the leaking questions of the mathematics exams.

There were allegations of question leaks in SSC, HSC and JSC exams in the past several years. In most cases, questions were leaked allegedly through Facebook pages and SMSs.

According to detectives, question papers may be leaked in three phases -- during preparation, during printing in the press, and during distribution before the exams.

HC grants

Narayanganj has been suffering in jail since 2008 in a killing case.

Yesterday, the HC bench of Justice Obaidul Hassan and Justice Krishna Debnath passed the orders after examining the records of the cases against them and holding hearing on the rule issued earlier.

Another HC bench on November 30 last year issued a rule upon the government to explain why the four under-trial female prisoners at the Kashimpur jail in Gazipur should not be granted bail in the cases filed against them.
