Commuters in a tight spot

"Before the incident [Holey Artisan attack], police often bothered us. Now they don't say anything due to the transport crisis," said Idris Mia, a CNG-run auto-rickshaw driver.

The local authorities not only imposed restrictions on the regular buses, rickshaws are also off-limits in the Gulshan and Baridhara areas, which has impeded smooth movement of the commuters.

Often, rickshaw-vans used for carrying school-children are seen transporting passengers in between school hours.

Also, the traffic pressure between Madhya Badda and the Mohakhali Amtala turn has increased as additional buses were added to the already overcrowded route.

"In a word, we're facing losses. Congestion on the road [Madhya Badda to Mohakhali turn] has increased, resulting in fewer numbers of trips," said Md Nasir, a driver of Robrob Paribahan.

The number of passengers also declined due to the additional buses plying the road, he said.

The restriction has also contributed to gridlock on Bir Uttam AK Khandakar Road as the buses that earlier plied Madani Avenue had to divert their routes, resulting in transport owners facing losses, said the owners.

"Now, we travel from Madhya Badda to Mohakhali via Gulshan-1. Before, we used to go through Kakoli to Natun Bazar via Gulshan-2," said Shalauddin Rony, one of the owners of Bihanga Paribahan.

He said their monthly turnover has dropped to Tk 25,000, and to cope up with the situation many owners had to reschedule their bank loans.

BRTA Director (engineer) Nurul Islam said a committee comprising bus owners and BRTA officials has been formed to fix the fare of the AC service. "The committee is scrutinising the fare," he said.

Contacted, DNCC Mayor Anisul Huq said, "Traffic jams have no grammar. It varies. We're working to repair the roads, which will take another one or two months. After that, the congestion will reduce in Gulshan," he said.

Cheaper bus service can be introduced, he said, adding, "But it depends on Dhaka Metropolitan Police (DMP) since they've stopped the regular bus service on security grounds."

"We're planning to introduce small transports in Banani and increase the numbers of Dhaka Chaka for smooth communications," said Deputy Commissioner (Gulshan zone) Mostaque Ahamed.

Regarding the traffic jam at Gulshan-1, he said, "Inform it to the traffic department, once they give us their observations, we'll address the issue."

He said they have also asked the traffic department of police to take action against the illegal auto-rickshaws plying the area.

HC verdict

One of them even filmed the horrendous incident and shared it on Facebook.

The 28-minute video footage went viral in social media and shows prime accused Quamrul Islam hitting the boy with a stick in the feet, joints of legs, shoulders and head.

A Sylhet court in November 2015 sentenced four people including Quamrul to death for killing Rajon.

Three other death-row convicts are Zakir Hossain alias Pavel, Saddique Ahmed alias Boro Moyna and Taz Uddin alias Badal.

The convicts later filed appeals with the HC challenging the trial court verdict.

Meanwhile yesterday, the same HC bench started hearing on the death reference and appeals in a case filed against Oishee Rahman over killing her father -- police official Mahfuzur Rahman -- and her mother in 2013.

The bench also fixed today for resuming the hearing, Assistant Attorney General Atiqul Haque Salim told The Daily Star.

On August 16, 2013, the bodies of Mahfuzur, inspector of Special Branch of Police, and his wife Swapna Rahman were recovered from their Chamelibagh house in the capital.

A Dhaka court on November 12, 2015 sentenced Oishee to death for the killing.

Oishee later filed an appeal with the HC challenging the lower court verdict.
