

FERDOUS ARA'S PRIDE

Faisal Mohammed, the son of the legendary Nazrul singer Ferdous Ara, has won the 'Sexton Scholar Award' from Dhallhouse University. The requirement of this award is to have a minimum GPA of 3.85. He has been designated as a Sexton Scholar due to extraordinary academic performance in the field of electrical engineering, and he wishes to focus on photonics. He previously finished his diploma from Saint Mary's University, Halifax, and has moved on to greater heights with this outstanding academic accomplishment. As of yet, Faisal is the only Bangladeshi student to be honored with this award.

JAYA ON BOISHAKH

Jaya Ahsan isn't just a household name anymore; she is making noise in Calcutta as well. Her films have created waves across Tallywood. Carrying her work, Joya Ahsan has bagged another film named "Bishorjon" that is set to release this Boishakh, under the direction of Kaushik Ganguly alongside Abir Chatterjee. The film, according to the actress, talks about the social issue where the borders don't separate beings bounded by blood, culture, race and love. The setting of the story is based on the ages of East Pakistan. Previously, Joya Ahsan has acted in "Aborto", "Ekti Bangali Bhut Er Golpo", "Rajkahini" and "Egoler Chokh". Nowadays Joya is busy with shooting in "Beauty Circus" and prepping for "Debi".

Four Missions of SHAKIB KHAN

Shakib Khan has been juggling with four projects at the moment. We will be seeing him in four movies this year, which will be released at different festivals, with one film at a time. The movies will be produced under the banner of Venkatesh Films. The films will cast, opposite of Shakib, Koel Mollik, Mimi Chakraborty, Shayantika and Nusrat Jahan. The first film, "Birodhi", alongside Nusrat Jahan, is set to start shooting on 16th March, under the direction of Rajiv Biswas. According to Shakib, he is maintaining all the rules and regulations while shooting for this film and he has already heard the stories of two of these films, of which one is an action film and the other is a love story.

