

JOYA AHSAN'S "MISIR ALI" ADAPTATION

Awed by her acting skills, we have seen Joya Ahsan in many roles throughout her career. Now the actress is set to debut as a producer under her production label "C te Cinema" for the movie "Debi". The film is based on the novel "Debi" of the late Humayun Ahmed. Much of the film's financing has sourced itself from the government grant that it has been provided with. The film will also be the debut for many others, with the directorial gig of Anam Biswas and acting debut of Shabnam Faria in a feature film. Chanchal Chowdhury will be playing the male lead as 'Misir Ali' and the female lead shall be played by Joya Ahsan as 'Ranu'.

PORI'S NEW MOVIE

The much talked about actress of the recent times, Pori Moni is set to start shooting in Calcutta for "Bhalobasha Gunah Hai", opposite to Roshan. The actress is also rumoured to act for Arindam Shil in his film "Anuprobesh". According to the story of Shamaresh Mojumdar the movie shall cast Abir Chatterjee opposite to Pori Moni as her male lead. Nusrat Imrose Tisha, Kusum Shikder and Momo are also said to act alongside Pori. According to Pori, she is satisfied with all the work she is doing and that she has nothing more to want. The actress has back-to-back films releasing, namely "Shopnojjol" and "Ontor Jala".

NANCY'S Dream Project

Known as the most distinguished minstrel of her generation, Nancy seems to be the talk of the town these days, due to her duet "Tumi Amar" alongside Habib Wahid for the movie "Sultana Bibiana". The singer was also bestowed with tremendous honor when her Valentine's Day special video of the song "Bondhu"

reached over a million and a hundred thousand views in very little time. Kona is busy with her new album, which is set to release on the following Boishak. Nancy claims this to be her dream project and the songs are coming out exactly the way she planned it, which the audience should really connect with.
