Baishakh @ Radisson Blu

For the upcoming Bengali New Year, Radisson Blu Dhaka has a wide plethora of ambitious plans to pull through.

The hotel will be about glimmering lights, illuminated drapes and handmade crafts and pottery, for three days, from April 13 to April 15.

Meanwhile, Spice and Rice is aiming at a cutting edge world-class display of culinary interaction and innovation, with Chef James's spectacular Pahela Baishakh Buffet, which is going to offer the traditional specialties plus modern additions and his famous 'themed' kebabs. Treat yourself with the most scrumptious of hilsha delicacies. Indulge in the divine mutton bhuna kichori. From themed ice sculptures displayed in an array of colours and Bengali traditions to the delicious treats, this is going to be a huge event for Spice and Rice.

On the other hand, Water Garden Brasserie is hosting a Pahela Baishakh 'desi' lunch and dinner. Don't miss Dhaka's first ever ice made ice cream sundae counter with LED infusion! From freshly fried geelapis to hilsa to lentil extravaganza to bhortas to local sweets, there is much on offer. Children are invited to join in the festivities with face painting, magic shows, etc to make this day special for them.

The essence of the day will be reflected amongst the hotel personnel as well, who will be dressed in red saris and panjabis - a stark contrast to their usual wear.

For reservation, call 01730089130.
