The BNP chief on Tuesday submitted two separate petitions to the HC through her lawyers challenging the lower court orders that accepted the charges.
In the petitions, she said her name was not included in the first information report (FIR) of the cases as she was confined during the incident.
The HC may hold hearing on Khaleda's petitions on April 9, Deputy Attorney General Shaikh AKM Moniruzzaman Kabir told The Daily Star.

BDR carnage hearing may conclude

A date for delivering verdict in the biggest ever criminal case in the country's history in terms of number of accused and convicts, or it may keep the case waiting for a verdict, he added.
The death reference and the appeals were filed with the HC months after a Dhaka court announced the verdict on November 5, 2013, nearly five years after the bloody mutiny at the BDR headquarters in Palkhana of Dhaka.
The trial court gave death sentences to 150 soldiers of the erstwhile Bangladesh Rifles (BDR) and to two civilians, and jailed 160 others for life for their roles and involvement in the carnage.

It also handed down rigorous imprisonment, ranging from three to 10 years, to 256 people, mostly BDR soldiers. The court acquitted the remaining 277 accused, but the government later appealed against the acquittal of 69 of them. A total of 846 people, 823 of them BDR personnel, stood trial in the carnage case.
Seventy-four people, including 57 army officials, were massacred during the BDR mutiny on February 25-26 in 2009 at the Palkhana headquarters of the paramilitary force, later renamed Border Guard Bangladesh.

The special HC bench comprising Justice Md Shawkat Hossain, Justice Md Abu Zafor Siddique, and Justice Nazrul Islam Talukder started hearing the death reference and 255 appeals in January 2015.
Meanwhile, 17,306 BDR jawans are facing trial in 11 special BDR courts and 60 summary trial courts for mutiny. At least 78 jawans accused in both the carnage and mutiny cases died from mysterious illnesses after the mutiny. The authorities claimed that many of them have died of heart attack in police custody while a few others committed suicide.

Uncle 'kills boy after abduction'

On early Tuesday police arrested Shahidul and Sujon. Based on the information gleaned from the two arrestees, police recovered the decomposed body the same evening.
Mohiuddin said his brother, Sujon, is a drug addict and he did not have any job. Sujon sometimes worked as a helper of human hauliers.
He had to drive Sujon out of the house three years ago for his addiction, he said, adding that three months back, Sujon asked for Tk 1,000 from him, but he was unable to give him that money.

The two arrestees have admitted to Mahin's killing during primary interrogation and they said another of their friends, Sabbir, had come up with the plan of abducting a child for quick cash, said OCMatiur.

Sujon then convinced the other two that abducting his own nephew would be the easiest, he said, adding that Sabbir is still on the loose and they needed to quiz the duo further for more details.
The remains of the young boy were sent to Dhaka Medical College morgue yesterday and samples were collected for DNA and viscera tests, said morgue sources.

death, spoke to the family members.
Raudha's father Mohamed Athif, a general physician in the Maldives, said, the family reiterated their points to the officials that they still believed their daughter was strangled to death.
Later in the afternoon, the officials met Prof Mansur Rahman, head of the three-member medical board that performed the autopsy, at the latter's office at Barind Medical College, said Inspector Rashidul Islam of Detective Branch of Rajshahi Metropolitan Police.
Contacted, Prof Mansur said, "I informed the Maldivian cops that the medical board gave the autopsy report maintaining standard."
"I explained to them that Raudha's death occurred due to asphyxia following hanging, which was suicidal in nature. Only her viscera report is yet to be given."

The officials expressed satisfaction with the report, he claimed.
Contacted, Alamin Hossain, assistant commissioner of the Detective Branch, said they would not share the autopsy report with anyone for the interest of the investigation.
However, Ekramul Haque, a lawyer at the Rajshahi court, said it is a legal obligation of the investigating authorities to satisfy the victim's family in regard to investigation. "The obligation increases when the victim's family is foreign guests."
The family will get the copy of the autopsy report if they apply to any court as the document is meant to make public, he said.
This correspondent could not reach the Maldivian police officials for comments despite repeated calls and several text messages and visits to Rajshahi Circuit House where they were staying.

Later he raped the victim. When someone knocked at the door of the office, Saiduzzaman got worried and decided to kill the girl to keep the matter a secret and sliced the body into 26 pieces and dumped those pieces in different places.

Following the incident, Sub-inspector Abdus Samad filed a case with Shahbagh Police Station against Bachchu. Police later arrested Bachchu and he confessed to the killing.
Detectives pressed charges against Bachchu on September 1, 2012, and the court framed charges on May 20, 2013.
