

ARJUN KAPOOR'S "HALF GIRLFRIEND"

Arjun Kapoor is set to act in the movie adaptation of Chetan Bhagat's "Half Girlfriend", which is an eponymous novel exploring the on-and-off relationship between two lovers. The film is produced by Balaji Motion Pictures, Mohit Suri and Chetan, and is getting ready for release at 19th May. The author, while expressing his views on the movie, said, "When I observe today's youth, I see many situations where people are more than friends, but not quite in a relationship. That situation when you find someone special, but are not yet fully together." Arjun is set to see Shraddha Kapoor as his opposite in the film.

Prateik's Fight with Drugs and Depression

"I am in a happy space today. Opportunities are coming in and I'm determined to work hard because now I don't fear failure anymore. I've seen it enough and I know how to deal with it," the actor asserted the media while talking about his drug abuse and his time at rehab. The actor, who was far too many times seen drunk at most of the Bollywood parties, took a year-long sobriety in order to commemorate the death of his mother Smita Patil, on her 30th death anniversary. During post-rehab and in his search for solace, he had gone to Himachal Pradesh for detox. "I was depressed and fighting substance abuse. I found help there and I want to introduce those who might be facing similar problems to my new-found wellness recipe," the actor stated.

Emmy Rossum's Los Angeles House Burglarized

Actress Emmy Rossum's Los Angeles house was burglarized this Wednesday, March 22. One hundred and fifty thousand dollars worth of jewelry and other valuables was reported stolen. The 30-year-old "Shameless" actress was reportedly away from her home and in New York City during the incident. It was also reported that the burglars targeted two of her safes. Spokesperson of LAPD declared that it was easy for the burglars to break in, as Rossum had conveniently left the written combinations out. The investigation is still going on and the commercial crimes division is doing the best they can to get a trail of the burglars.
