'PLOT TO KILL JOY'
Court asks DB to submit probe report May 15

COURT CORRESPONDENT
A Dhaka court yesterday asked detectives to submit on May 15 the probe report of the case filed over plotting to abduct and kill Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina's son Sajeb Wazed Joy. The court passed the order after Hasan Arafat, senior assistant commissioner of the Detective Branch (DB) of police and the investigation officer of the case, failed to submit probe report yesterday. With this, the IO took 19 dates for submitting the probe report. Earlier DB arrested senior journalist and pro-BNP intellectual Shafiq Rehman and Amar Desh acting Editor Mahmudur Rahman for their alleged involvement in the plot. Later, Shafiq and Mahmudur were placed on a 10-day remand each in two phases. But they earlier got bail from the higher court on different dates.

Clockwise from left, instead of using a footbridge just overhead, pedestrians wave down oncoming vehicles and walk across the road in front of Hazrat Shahjalal International Airport in the capital. To stop this practice, which is a major cause of road accidents and debilitating traffic in Dhaka city, Uttara zone traffic police yesterday set up a mobile court to fine jaywalkers. Some pedestrians being taken to the court near the footbridge.

Keep vigil against militancy
Says Nahid at 20th convocation of NSU

STAFF CORRESPONDENT
Education Minister Nurul Islam Nahid yesterday called upon all to stay alert so that students do not fall prey to militants who lure youths by misinterpreting Islam. "Lured by them, many young meritorious students have already gone astray," he said, addressing the 20th convocation of North South University (NSU) on its campus in the capital. A total of 2,642 graduates received degrees at the ceremony, while two students -- Yasir Arefin Rahib and Salwa Khan -- were awarded the chancellor's gold medals and seven others the vice chancellor's gold medals. Presiding over the convocation, Nahid urged guardians and teachers to inspire students towards creative pursuits. "Parents, guardians, and teachers will have to be watchful about the existing circumstances," he added. Addressing the graduates, he said university was a place for creating knowledge, and research was a must to do that. He urged the private universities to take minimum tuition fees considering the country's socio-economic condition. If the private universities fail to ensure proper academic environment and abide by law, and focus only on money-making, the government will take action, he cautioned. Prof Abdul Mannan, chairman of the University Grants Commission, said the youths must be introduced to the sacrifices of Liberation War heroes to keep them away from militancy. Convocation speaker Mikael Hemniti Winther, Danish ambassador to Bangladesh, said dialogue between the parents and their children was needed so that they could be guided properly. Yasir Arefin Rahib, a BBA graduate, spoke on behalf of the students. Prof Atiqul Islam, vice chancellor of NSU, and Azim Uddin Ahmed, chairman of the board of trustees of the university, were present among others.

HC stays DU teacher's suspension

STAFF CORRESPONDENT
The High Court yesterday stayed the suspension of Prof Md Reazul Haque of Dhaka University for six months clearing the way for him to discharge his duties. The HC issued the order and rule following a writ petition filed by Reazul, teacher of the department of development studies. Reazul, was suspended following allegations of showing "obscene materials" in one of his classes. Yesterday Reazul's lawyer Jyotirmoy Barua told The Daily Star that there is no legal bar for his client to join the office following the HC order.

Education Minister Nurul Islam Nahid, University Grants Commission Chairman Prof Abdul Mannan, convocation speaker Mikael Hemniti Winther, Vice Chancellor of North South University Prof Atiqul Islam, and Chairman of NSU Board of Trustees Azim Uddin Ahmed, among others, with graduating students at the 20th convocation of the university on its campus in the capital yesterday.

President urges media

President Hamid emphasised maintaining quality and objectivity in journalism, and said the overall scenario of journalism these days is dissimilar to that of sixties as the mass media is heading towards corporate culture. Hoping that the media people would pinpoint the government's missteps, the president said constructive criticism can help the government take right decision. "Mass media and democracy are inter-related. Human rights could not be established without democracy. The mass media expands when democracy flourishes in a country," Hamid observed terming the mass media the fourth pillar of a state. Hamid appreciated the media for its role in exploring the unknown history of the Liberation War and preserving its memories. The president recalled the memories of former daily Sangbad editor Bazlu Rahman, also the husband of Agriculture Minister Begum Matia Chowdhury, and said, "Bazlu Bhai as an honest and brave journalist fought his whole life to establish the rights of people, and for a non-communal, just and exploitation-free society." Hamid recalled Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman and other martyrs who sacrificed their lives in the 1971 Liberation War and other democratic movements. Two journalists -- Wakil Ahmed Hiron, senior reporter of the Daily Samakal, and Mohammad Alauddin Ahmed, investigation cell's deputy editor of Jamuna Television -- received the award for their reports on the War of Liberation. Liberation War Museum introduced the "Padak" after the name of former editor of the Daily Sangbad. Dhaka University Vice-Chancellor Dr AAMS Arefin Siddique presided over the ceremony. Trustees of Liberation War Museum Dr Sarwar Ali and Ziauddin Tariq Ali, jury board members Faridur Reza Sagor and Robaet Ferdous, among others, spoke.
