President for checking misinterpretation of Islam

Two Saudi Islamic scholars call on him

BSS, Dhaka

President Abdul Hamid yesterday stressed the need for addressing the wrong propagation of Islam that helped spread terrorism and militancy worldwide.

"People of Bangladesh consider Islam as a religion of peace and harmony... And there is no room for terrorism and militancy in Islam," the President came up with the remark as Vice-President of Masjid al Haram Dr Mohammed Bin Nasser Bin Mohammed Alkhuzaim and Imam of Masjid an-Nabawi Abdulmehsin Mohammad Al Quasim called on him at Bangabhaban in the capital.

President Abdul Hamid hoped that the initiatives of Saudi Arabia would help combat militancy and terrorism significantly and Bangladesh would provide its all-out support to any steps to establish world peace.

President's press secretary Joynal Abedin told this to newsmen after the meeting. Welcoming the delegation, the President said this visit is a testimony to excellent bilateral relation which is based on common faith, religion, custom, values and aspirations between the two friendly Muslim countries.

"Bangladesh gives priority to friendly relation between the two brotherly Muslim countries," the President mentioned.

Referring to the contribution of Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman to the welfare of Islam and Muslims, Abdul Hamid said Bangabandhu established the Islamic Foundation, Bangladesh (IFB) which is now playing a significant role for the welfare of Islam and Muslim Ummah.

Vice President of Masjid al Haram Dr Mohammed Bin Nasser Bin Mohammed Alkhuzaim lauded different development activities of Bangladesh Government in recent time.

Recalling his previous visit to Bangladesh 20 years back, the vice-president of the Prophet's mosque said that he was really surprised to see the overall progress of the country at present.

He said the country would achieve tremendous success under efficient and dynamic leadership of Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina in line with the dream of Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman.

The Saudi delegation also assured of providing all necessary assistance to the welfare and development of Bangladesh in days ahead.

Religious Affairs Minister Motiur Rahman, Chairman of the Parliamentary Standing Committee on Religious Affairs BH Haroon, MP, Ambassador of KSA to Bangladesh Abdullah HK Al-Mutariri and secretaries and high officials concerned were present.

She had fever because she was not fed breast milk immediately after her birth, he said, adding that but it was not a major problem, and the girl was recovering.

Lipi said they would give a name to the baby through a ceremony.

Kamal Uddin, officer-in-charge of the police station, said the couple would get priority to get the baby because they demanded her first and treated her, but they would have to appeal to the district magistrate's court.

Police will submit an investigation report on the appeal, and then the court will decide whether the couple will be able to adopt the baby, he said.

the party president gave you nomination, we made you mayor," he said. "But you cannot deceive people..."

"The party chief has warned you, yet you are not changing yourself... If you do not change yourself after this rally, if you do not give up your dishonest thinking, then Mohiuddin Chowdhury knows what to do."

The ex-mayor said he would submit a proposal through Chittagong city unit AL to the prime minister to have Nasir "dismissed" immediately.

There has been a long-running rivalry between the two leaders, and they occasionally exchanged heated words on different issues.

Earlier in the morning, Nasir said those who were

Speaking at the press conference, Shepa Hafiza, executive director of Ain o Salish Kendra (ASK) -- one of the 19 rights organisations, said, "We call upon the government to discuss with the civil society for the formulation and implementation of the work plan."

The UN committee asked the government to revise its legislation to limit the use of force by law enforcement agencies, the military and other special forces, maintaining international standard.

It also urged the government to investigate all cases of arbitrary killings, enforced disappearances, and excessive use of force, and asked it to prosecute the perpetrators with appropriate sanctions, and provide full reparation to the victims.

Barrister Sara Hossain, honorary executive director of Bangladesh Legal Aid and Services Trust, spoke among others.

The UN Human Rights Committee is the body of independent experts that monitors implementation of the ICCPR by its state parties.
