Funky pillows!

Pillows remind us of the most cherished activity of the day: peaceful relaxation. But have you ever considered your pillows to feature the printed images of your most favourite cartoons, anime, TV series or movies? Well, 'Pillow Platoon' here has come up with that concept to convert the same old boring pillows into stylish ones.

Fortunately, it has managed to achieve a fair share of success and popularity in F-commerce in a short span of ten months by manufacturing and selling pillows with images of various significant and funky printed designs.

The tagline, 'Let your pillow do the talking,' fits right in, as the peppy vibes of Pillow Platoon represent the modern pop culture. It

Baishakh at Four Points by Sheraton

Four Points by Sheraton Dhaka is set to splash all the colours, at Pahela Baishakh 1424. The hotel will greet the New Year by hosting Baishakhi fair on April 14, 2017 in a traditional Bengali approach, at 'Wrapped' and 'Oasis Lounge'. All day long, the fair will feature chotpoti-fuchka corner, pitha corner, traditional Bangladeshi desserts, and local entertainment. 'The Eatery' restaurant will be offering a Baishakhi fiesta all day long, on 14 April. Only dinner will be served on 13 and 15 April, 2017.

is rapidly becoming trendy among the younger crowd as a 'cool' product to decorate their homes with or to present as gift items to their loved ones. The pillows are of high quality fabric with high colour saturation, each pillow measuring 18" x 18", with a single-sided print and a hideaway zipper for the ease of use. Delivery is free within the Dhaka city.

At present, Pillow Platoon's Facebook page is over-flooded with appreciations and satisfactions because of the quality, prints, material and for their overall service.

Pillow Platoon is all set to amaze their customers with their upcoming collections. Find 'Pillow Platoon' on Facebook and wait for more vibrant and exciting surprises.

EVENT

FEAB presents Fashion Festival 2017: 'Deshiponno, Shobarjonno'

With Baishakh humming around the corner, Fashion Entrepreneurs Association of Bangladesh (FEAB) organised a five-day fashion assembly on the premises of the Chitrashala plaza in Bangladesh Shilpakala Academy. The Minister of Cultural Affairs, Asaduzzaman Noor; MP, graced the event as the Chief Guest.

The show began with an award giving ceremony followed by a wonderful fashion show choreographed by Azra Mahmood.

For the first time ever, FEAB arranged the 'lifetime achievement award' for outstanding individuals in the fashion industry. Brilliant personalities like Chandra Shekhar Shaha and Ashrafur Rahman Faruk received the award for their momentous contribution in the fashion industry of Bangladesh.

The fashion show showcased a variety of local fashion houses and their Pahela Baishakh collection.

Implementing the 'Gamcha' pattern in all of their designs, fashion house Nipun was first in queue, showcasing excellent pieces for Baishakh including sarees, salwar kameez and panjabis in shades of contrasting colours like red orange and white.

Tangail Saree Kutir, like always, exhibited traditional white and red themed sarees in sophisticated designs.

Kay Kraft made an amazing entry with models wearing the exclusive traditional sarees, kameez and panjabis; holding colourful placards emulating the celebration of Baishakh.

Fashion House Anjans surprised everyone with their creative Shap-ludu motif sarees, kameezes and panjabis implemented in bright colours contrasting with white.

Miah Bibi portrayed some exclusive saree collections representing the culture of Chittagong Hill Tracts.

Shailpik Craft mesmerised the audiences with their unique collection of elegant white sarees in colourful floral patterns.

Moreover Rang Bangladesh, Sadakalo, Kumudini, AB Fashion Maker, M-Craft, Banglar Mela, Deshal, Kapor-e-Bangla, Sristy, Nandan Kutir, Arannya Craft, Nitto Upohar, Shiboni, Megh, etc along with other leading fashion houses also showcased their impressive collections for the upcoming Baishakh.

The award giving ceremony and fashion show by FEAB was surely motivating for everyone, providing a significant platform to the 'deshi' fashion houses representing the flourishing fashion industry of Bangladesh.
