

Six arrested over two AL men's killing in Comilla

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Comilla

Six people were arrested and eight others detained yesterday in connection with the killing of two Awami League activists during a factional clash in Comilla's Muradnagar upazila on Tuesday night. SM Badiuzzaman, officer-in-charge of Muradnagar Police Station, said a murder case was filed by Union Parishad member Ashraf Islam, who was injured in the incident, against 29 identified and 20 to 25 unidentified men yesterday. Faruk Hossain, 34, and Saidur Islam, 24, were hacked to death in the factional clash over establishing supremacy.

A pile of sea fish being loaded onto a cart at Firingi Bazar in Chittagong yesterday. Traders buy the raw fish including Ribbon fish (chhuri) and Bombay Duck (loitta) at the price of Tk 1,500-1,800 per maund. After maintaining due process, the raw fish will be transformed into dried fish to be sold across the country.

'HURTING RELIGIOUS SENTIMENT' Hefajat man sues Taqi's father

OUR CORRESPONDENT, N'ganj

A case was filed yesterday against Rafiur Rabbi, a well-known cultural activist in the city and the father of murdered schoolboy Tanwir Muhammed Taqi, for allegedly hurting religious sentiment.

Maulana Ferdausur Rahman, district coordinator of Hefajat-e-Islam, filed the case with Narayanganj Chief Judicial Magistrate's Court of Ashok Kumar

Dutta in the morning. After accepting and hearing the case, the court directed Detective Branch of police to submit a report after conducting an investigation, said complainant's lawyer Sultan Ul Arefin.

PPP can deliver better education

Says lawyer, activist Rokhsana Khondker at UN meeting on SDG

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Public-private partnerships (PPP) can deliver effective education and health services, said lawyer and activist Rokhsana Khondker yesterday at a high-level meeting on SDG at the United Nations in New York. "PPP can ensure better delivery of education in several ways. They can control teacher strikes and absenteeism, they can ensure more effective management of schools..." she said. Rokhsana is one of the four speakers invited by the president of the UN General Assembly, says a press release. The other speakers are Giulia Porino of Italy, Donna Katzin of the US and Kaoutar Yaiche of Morocco. "The key to forming effective PPPs is to ensure that the government has strengthened capacity to conducting monitoring and oversight of the private sector. Same kinds of partnerships can be put in place for the health sector," she said. Rokhsana is the founder executive director of Khan Foundation and founder chair of the Board of Trustees of the Millennium University. She is also an advocate at the Bangladesh Supreme Court and a long standing member of the American Law and Society Association.

BCL activists sued for

FROM PAGE 3 of the construction project, Chittagong City Corporation Mayor and city unit Awami League General Secretary AJM Nasir Uddin said, "I see no obstacle. We have taken a decision to implement the project anyhow..." Nasir said this while talking to reporters after inaugurating CJKS Mayor Gold Cup Inter-Ward Football Tournament at MA Aziz Stadium yesterday. "You saw law enforcers took a strict stance on Tuesday and they will show zero tolerance in this regard." "If anyone wants to obstruct the project, it will be tantamount to obstructing the development works of the government and would be adjudged a criminal act," he said. Around 20 persons including two policemen were injured in a clash between BCL and police when BCL activists went to protest the construction of a swimming pool at the outer stadium on Tuesday.

Six Netrakona men

FROM PAGE 3 had allegedly carried out horrific activities of crimes against humanity..." "It is settled that mere framing charge does not prove one's guilt," it, however, said. The charges brought against them are: killing three Hindu men including prominent physician Hem Bagchi in Purbadhala Rajpara, and looting their houses on May 1971; abducting and torturing Abdul Goni of Barha village on July 25; abducting and killing Abdul Khaleque Talukder of Barha, and looting and torching his house on August 21; abducting and killing Mahir Uddin of Barha village on August 27; abducting four people from different parts of Purbadhala upazila, and killing two of them in between November 12 and 16; abducting and killing Siraj Ali Mandal of Moudam village on November 20; and raping a woman on November 25, 1971.
