

5 lives lost on road

Five people were killed and seven others injured in road accidents in three districts yesterday.

In Natore, two women were killed as a truck skidded off a road and turned turtle in Karbala area of Baraigram upazila.

The deceased were Nazma Begum, 34, and Sajeda Begum, 30. They hailed from Kachutia village in the district.

Police said the incident occurred as the driver lost his control over the vehicle, leaving the women dead on the spot.

In Dinajpur, two people were killed as a bus hit a rickshaw-van carrying them on Dinajpur-Bogra highway in Haripara village under Ghoraghat upazila.

The deceased were Abdus Salam, 55, of Bhelai village and Abdus Salam, 65, of Kanaibari village in the district.

In Nilphamari, an elderly man was killed as a battery-run three-wheeler carrying him collided head-on with a motorcycle on Tunirhat-Bhadurdarga road in Dimla upazila.

The deceased was Kasem Molla, 70, of Nautara village under the upazila. Seven other people, including the motorcyclist, were injured in the accident.

WAR CRIMES Decision on indictment of 13 Bagerhat men May 31

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The International Crimes Tribunal-1 yesterday fixed May 31 to decide whether it will take cognisance of the charges brought against 13 Bagerhat men for allegedly committing crimes during the Liberation War in 1971.

The two-member tribunal led by Justice Anwarul Haque fixed the date, a day after the prosecution pressed seven charges against the alleged Razakars. Another judge was on leave yesterday.

The 13 were "involved" in killing, rape, abduction, confinement, torture, looting, and arson attack at Kachua and Morrelganj upazilas in Bagerhat, according to the charges.

The accused are Khan Ashraf Ali, 65; Khan Akram Hossain, 60; Sultan Ali Khan, 68; Rustam Ali Mollah, 70; Edris Ali Mollah, 64; Moksed Ali Didar, 83; Sheikh Mohammad Ukil Uddin, 62; Sheikh Edris Ali, 61; Rafiqul Islam alias Babul, 64; Moniruzzaman Hawlader, 69; Hashem Ali Sheikh, 79; Azhar Ali Sikder, 64; and Mokbul Mollah, 79.

Of them, Akram, Edris Ali Mollah, Ukil Uddin and Mokbul Mollah are in custody while the rest are yet to be arrested, the prosecution said. The seven charges are: killing 10 people, injuring two others and looting 40-50 houses in Capri and Teligati villages; murdering four people in Hajrakhal and Boikhali villages; killing two unarmed freedom fighters in Dhuligati village; murdering four people in Bilkul and Bichat villages; killing a man in Bilkul village; and raping four women for over a month.

Meanwhile, the tribunal deferred the date to May 9 to decide whether it will accept charges brought against four Satkhira men including the district Ameer of Jamaat-e-Islami, over their alleged involvement in war-time crimes. Yesterday was fixed for giving the decision but the tribunal changed the date as a judge was on leave yesterday. The prosecution on March 19 pressed seven charges against them.

The accused -- Abdul Khaleq Mandol, Satkhira Jamaat's chief and a former law-maker; M Abdullah Al Baki alias Abdullah Hel Baki, Khan Rokonzaman, and Jahurul Islam alias Jahurul Haque alias Tikka Khan -- are from the Sadar upazila.

Of them, Khaleq is in jail while Baki -- who, according to the prosecution, is the world's oldest war crimes accused -- is now on bail. Two other accused are yet to be arrested.

COLLEGE TEACHER MURDER Charges framed against lone accused

COURT CORRESPONDENT

A Dhaka court yesterday framed charges against KM Zahurul Islam Palash, the lone accused in a case filed over killing college teacher Krishna Kaberi Biswas in the capital's Mohammadpur in March 2015.

Palash, now in jail, pleaded not guilty and demanded justice after Judge Shahed Nuruddin of the Speedy Trial Tribunal-1 read out the charges to him.

The court fixed May 25 for starting the trial.

Krishna Biswas, 36, wife of BRTA deputy director Sitangshu Shekhar Bishwas and a former teacher of Mission International College at Adabar, was killed at their flat on March 30, 2015.

Sitangshu and their two daughters were also injured in the attack.

According to the case statement, Palash entered the flat to greet Sitangshu on his belated birthday. But drugging him with contaminated juice, Palash hit his head with a hammer.

When Kaberi tried to save her husband, Palash hacked her with a kitchen sickle and later set her on fire. She died the following day.

Later, a murder case was filed accusing Palash as the lone accused.

On October 8, 2015, Palash was sent to jail after his surrender before a Dhaka court seeking bail. Detectives on May 16 last year pressed charges against him.

three countries would meet next.

The two leaders also recognised the importance of BBIN (Bangladesh, Bhutan, India, Nepal) Motor Vehicle Agreement for regional connectivity.

Bhutan appreciated Bangladesh for taking a number of measures, including opening of land customs stations namely Tamabil-Dawki and Nakuagaon-Dalu, Gobrakura and Koroitoli-Gasupara and resolving duty exemption issues on lime stone powder, gypsum and calcium carbonate export to Bangladesh.

Bhutan gifted a plot of land measuring 1.5 acres to Bangladesh for construction of its embassy at the diplomatic enclave at Hejo, Thimphu. Sheikh Hasina unveiled the foundation stone for the embassy of Bangladesh while the King of Bhutan graced the ceremony.

THE QUEEN'S YOUNG LEADERS

Call for Expression of Interest for Grant Pre-Qualification

ActionAid Bangladesh is inviting Expressions of Interest from eligible local youth-led organizations/clubs from the wider Rangpur division for participating in the Bangladesh Firestarter Initiative (BFI) - a reactive and open small grants scheme funded by the Queen's Young Leaders Programme. The BFI project targets emerging and innovative youth-led organizations/clubs leading advocacy projects, and aims to build their capacity, provide peer to peer learning and sharing opportunities, and establish linkages with the wider youth sector/potential donors.

All interested parties are requested to take note of the timeline while submitting their Expressions of Interest. Based on the eligibility criteria only short-listed organizations will be contacted for final grant application process. Any personal persuasion/phone-call will result in disqualification of the application.

Organisations who applied last year are requested not to apply again this year. For further details, please log on to our website <http://www.actionaid.org/bangladesh/jobs/expression-interest-grant-pre-qualification>

Please send your applications to aah.jobs@actionaid.org on or before Saturday, 29th April 2017. Hard copies can be sent to:
