

SIDDHARTH IS NO LONGER ALIA'S 'PERSON'!

Following the success of "Badrinath ki Dulhania", Alia is busy spending her well earned 'me-time' with friends and family. She recently spent an evening with Ayan Mukherji, Aarti Shetty, Kunal Rawal and few others. She even shared a few pictures on Instagram in which Ayan can be seen with a tattoo on his face. Later that night, she posted another picture of her with Ayan in which Ayan is resting his head on Alia's shoulder while she is reading a magazine. She captioned it as 'My person'. Looks like Siddharth Malhotra has some new competition in town. Alia's next venture is Ayan Mukherji's superhero film where Ranbir Kapoor is playing the male lead. She is also expected to star in Zoya Akhtar's "Gully Boy" opposite to Ranveer Singh.

Source: The Times of India

Don't Mention Pepsi to KENDALL

Kendall Jenner is all set for Coachella this weekend and she has also agreed to give a number of interviews. However, there are some strings attached: No Pepsi ad talk! Sources have said that Kendall has asked for all questions to be submitted beforehand and there will be no mention of Pepsi directly or indirectly. Those attempting sneakiness will have to face serious consequences, which will include Kendall immediately stopping the interview and the journalist will forever be made 'persona non grata'!

Source: Internet

BRADLEY COOPER AND IRINA SHAYK WANT MORE BABIES!

Bradley Cooper and his model girlfriend Irina Shayk recently welcomed a baby girl named Lea de Seine Shayk Cooper. The news of Irina being pregnant became prominent back in November when she walked on the ramp for a Victoria's Secret fashion show with a baby bump. The family of three was recently seen strolling Venice Beach, California. The couple was initially romantically linked back in May 2015 after they were spotted kissing in New York. Shayk had then just broken up with her ex-boyfriend Cristiano Ronaldo. An insider revealed that the couple is madly in love with each other and Lea definitely won't be their only child. There will be a few more bundles of joy in the future!

Source: Internet