

BLAKE LIVELY

Lashes at Reporter!

Blake Lively recently attended the 'Power of Women' lunch in New York, where she gave a powerful speech on fighting child pornography. However, she didn't take too kindly when a reporter asked her about her outfit. She lashed out at the reporter saying, "Really? At this event? Would you ask a man that?" Another reporter caught part of the encounter in a video and it went viral on social media. Despite all that, Lively gave a very moving and emotional speech on child trafficking and child pornography. She joined the 'Child Rescue Coalition' and not-for-profit organizations that team up with the authorities and advocates to fight against child trafficking.

.....
Source: Internet

AISHWARYA & ABHISHEK

CELEBRATE THEIR 10TH ANNIVERSARY

Aishwarya and Abhishek recently celebrated their 10 year anniversary. However, the celebrations of their decade of togetherness were small and private due to the recent passing of Aishwarya's father, Krishnaraj Rai. Karan Johar tweeted a collage of candid pictures of the duo, along with the heartfelt message, "Congratulations Abhishek Bachchan on 10 beautiful years. How time flies! Still remember the sangeet performances!" Abhishek also took to social media to thank his loved ones and fans. He tweeted, "Just like that, it's been 10 years! Thank you for all the wishes for Aishwarya and I. Lots of love!"

.....
Source: Internet

KAREENA

WAS OFFERED RS. 6 CRORE FOR A FILM!

Rumor has it that Kareena Kapoor is going to star in a woman-centric film with Sonam Kapoor and Swara Bhaskar named "Veere Di Wedding". This is exciting news for many Kareena fans as they are used to seeing her in mostly male-centric films, that too with very little screen time. Fans might be able to see Kareena in a new avatar in "Veere Di Wedding" and reminisce her "Jab We Met" days. An even greater news is that Kareena may have been offered Rs. 6 crore for it! If it is true, then it is indeed great news for the ladies of Bollywood, where inequality in pay between the actors and actresses has been a hot topic for the last few years. The fact that producers and directors still want Kareena post-marriage and after pregnancy shows that Bollywood has finally matured and no longer values the worth of an actress based on her 'single' status.

.....
Source: Internet

