

RAVEENA

TAKES A DIG AT BOLLYWOOD!

"Andaz Apna Apna", although a flop when released, later gained a cult status like "Dil Chahta Hain". The film starred then new comers, Raveena Tandon, Karishma Kapoor, Salman Khan and Aamir Khan. Fans would love to see a sequel to it and when asked about it to Raveena at a recent event, Raveena very wittily took a dig at Bollywood's obsession with younger actresses. She said, "I am up for it, but I am sure my picture along with Karishma's picture will be hanging on the wall with Aamir and Salman garlanding us and saying 'Our wives are dead. What do we do now?', while simultaneously running after 21-year old actresses!" We wonder what Salman and Aamir will have to say to this?

Source: Internet

Zac Efron wants to find the right girl

Zac Efron, who is going to turn 30 soon, said that he has recently been thinking of marriage and settling down. After seeing his friends in great relationships, he now is looking for the right girl. "I didn't think much about settling down until recently. Now that I'm getting closer to my 30s, I'm around some great relationships and I've seen expert couples at work," Efron said. He also added, "I have realized that you have to find your own happiness before you can make someone else happy." Sounds like it's great news for all the single ladies.

Source: Internet

JOHN MAYER

wants Katy Perry back!

John Mayer has been trying to win back Katy Perry! It sounds ludicrous, but it's true. Given the fact that they have gotten back together multiple times after their original break up, this isn't too hard to believe. He recently sent a bouquet of flower to Katy Perry's house with a note that said, "I am here for you". But Perry is older and wiser, and is having none of that. She immediately sent the flowers to a nearby nursing home and had her assistant take a picture of the bouquet and sent it to Mayer. An insider revealed that Perry is extremely embarrassed that Mayer has been pining for her so publicly. But it seems like Mayer isn't giving up soon. He claimed that he is desperate to convince Perry that he is a changed man, but Perry has also alleged that she will get rid of anything he sends her. Seems like Mayer is barking up the wrong tree!

Source: Internet

