

Paris Jackson warns her fans about "13 Reasons Why"

The Netflix series "13 Reasons Why" has seemed to take the world by storm. Yet, it has also caused a huge controversy as many people feel that it glorifies suicide. Thus, Paris Jackson recently took to Instagram to warn her followers of the consequences of watching the show. Paris has also struggled with suicide in the past and also been very open about it and thus, feels quite strongly about the matter. In her post, she claimed that the show can be triggering and painful for people with depression, suicidal thoughts and intention of self-harm. She asked her fans to be precautionary while watching the show and at the same time praised how beautifully the show has dealt with showing how impactful words and actions can be, as well as how people should be more aware of how they treat others. Paris Jackson seems to be growing into quite the responsible and caring woman.

Priyanka and Kangana the new BFFs in B-town?

Priyanka Chopra recently returned from the US and has been busy promoting her movie "Baywatch" while throwing parties. Many celebrities like Rekha, Alia Bhatt and Siddharth Malhotra attended the latest party and Kangana Renaut was also amongst them. Kangana and Priyanka first worked together in Madhur Bhandarkar's "Fashion" and later in "Krish 3". Kangana has openly boasted not having many friends in Bollywood. However, seems like Priyanka is the one for keeps. A picture of the two of them hugging was widely appreciated by their fans given that Bollywood mostly seems to associate actresses with catfights. Kangana and Priyanka prove yet again that two successful actresses can be friends.

GIGI HADID'S BIRTHDAY CELEBRATIONS

Gigi Hadid was spotted with her boyfriend, Zayn Malik, stepping out from their New York City apartment on Tuesday morning right after her birthday the day before. Zayn was tightly holding Gigi's hand and they seemed to have coordinated their outfits as well. Gigi celebrated her birthday this week by taking a helicopter ride over New York City with Zayn and her mother, Yolanda Hadid. She was also joined by some of her model friends including Karlie Kloss. Zayn uploaded a picture of him kissing the birthday girl while captioning it, "His everything". Gigi, too, uploaded a picture of herself and Zayn kissing while she was holding a cake that said, "Happy Birthday Gigi". But the cake was just the beginning. The model was showered with gifts by her friends and family which she snapped as well. Looks like Gigi Hadid is having the time of her life!
