Radisson Chittagong cleans up Parki Beach

On May 8, 2017 a beach cleaning activity was conducted at Parki Beach, Chittagong by members of the Radisson Blu Chittagong Bay View, under the environmental concern of the 'Carlson Rezidor Hotels Group Corporate and Social Responsibility initiatives'.

As a company, Carlson Rezidor is strongly committed to upholding their corporate values of CSR, and Radisson Blu Chittagong Bay View, being a member of this group, is very proud to be able to be a part of these initiatives. The enthusiasm of the team was inspiring, which comprised of people from all levels of the organisation.

Robin Edwards, General Manager, Radisson Blu Chittagong Bay View, said that the initiative was made to spread awareness about the detrimental environmental hazards and the negative effects of garbage left on beaches.

Approximately 400 kgs of garbage was collected and disposed of properly from this popular and beautiful location, which is used by thousands of locals on weekends and holidays.

A picnic lunch was arranged by the hotel for all participants, and of course all the litter from the picnic was taken away by the team as well.
