

WAR CRIMES CASES Sherpur, Jessore men sent to jail

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The International Crimes Tribunal-1 yesterday sent two men -- one from Sherpur and the other from Jessore -- to jail in two cases filed over committing crimes against humanity during the Liberation War in 1971.

The tribunal delivered the orders in the cases after police produced the two accused before it. They are Amjad Hossain Mollah from Premchara village under Bagharpara upazila of Jessore and AKM Akram from Sherpur.

Police arrested Akram on April 24 issued an arrest warrant for him. Among the other three accused, Aminuzzaman Faruk and Emdadul Haque alias Khwaza Doctor are now in jail while Mukhlesur Rahman alias Tara is yet to be arrested.

The tribunal also directed the prosecution to submit the investigation report of the case on July 31.

Amjad of Jessore, held on May 15 in a criminal case, was shown arrested in the war crimes case on May 17. The ICT also asked the prosecution to submit the probe report on August 5.

TWO NARAIL MEN TO BE QUIZZED

In another development, the tribunal, following a petition by the prosecution, allowed to interrogate two Narail men in connection with a case filed over wartime crimes.

As per the order, investigators of the case will be able to interrogate Gulzar Khan and Mohammad Daud of Narail sadar upazila one day each on May 28 and 29 at the safe home of the tribunal's investigation agency, Prosecutor Rezia Sultana Chaman told this correspondent. Gulzar and Daud are among six accused in the case.

Man killed as bus hits him

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A man was killed in an accident after a bus ran him over in the capital's Ramna last night.

The deceased, Sumon, 30, a bus driver of Bihongo Paribahan, was talking over the phone when his bus stopped near the signal of Hotel Rupashi Bangla around 8:30pm.

Suddenly a mugger snatched away his phone. Taken aback, Sumon jumped out of the bus window and ran to catch him. Meanwhile, another bus hit him and Sumon died on the spot, a witness said.

Police recovered the body while another mobile phone set was found with him. Later, police informed Sumon's wife of the matter, said Anisur Rahman, sub-inspector of Ramna police.

Police said, they could not identify the "killer" bus.

Freedom fighter sued over 'war crimes'

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Patuakhali

A man has filed a case against the commander of Bangladesh Muktiyoddha Sangsad of Patharghata Unit in Barguna and his two relatives for allegedly committing crimes during the Liberation War in 1971.

Mizanur Rahman, who claimed his father Motiur Rahman was a freedom fighter, filed the case on Sunday with Patharghata upazila judicial magistrate's court.

The court ordered the authority concerned to send the case documents to the International Crimes Tribunal, said the complainant's lawyer Manoj Kumar Kirtonia.

The accused are commander Abdul Mannan Howlader, his younger brother Abdur Razzak Howlader, and brother-in-law Hazrat Ali, and 10/12 unnamed persons. Denying the allegations, Mannan said he was sued over "personal enmity."

According to the case documents, the accused tried to kill Chitta Ranjon Shil of the upazila on June 29, 1971. Later, they killed Murendra Nath, uncle of Chitta Ranjon and hid the body. The accused also killed Motiur Rahman, father of the complainant, and Monohar Mistree, father of Monmatha Mistree, a witness in the case, during the Liberation War. Later, the accused set fire to their houses.

Mizanur Rahman said, "I want justice for my father's killing." About the delay in filing the case, he said he had to spend time contacting witnesses and collecting documents.

Contacted, Mannan said he was not aware about the case as he was in Dhaka. "I have been serving to the Patharghata unit of Muktiyoddha Sangsad for over 25 years, and I am a genuine freedom fighter. I was not involved in any such crimes," he said over the phone.

In 2004, Mizanur Rahman applied to the unit seeking declaration of his father as "freedom fighter" but the unit did not consider his prayer, Mannan said.

The Pakistani army killed Motiur Rahman during the war with the help of Razakars, and like Motiur, many people were killed by the Pakistani army who are "Shaheed" (martyrs) but not "freedom fighters", he said. Mizanur was annoyed over the matter and sued him, he said.

Refuting the claim, Mizanur said the court would take a decision on the matter.

Students demonstrate Mayor Khokon hints at action

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Dhaka South City Corporation Mayor Sayeed Khokon yesterday warned that stern actions would be taken against the restaurant owners and fruit traders if they sell adulterated food or chemical-soaked fruits.

He was speaking at a views exchange meeting with restaurant owners, fruits traders, and club and bar owners at Nagar Bhaban.

The mayor said executive magistrates of DSCC will run mobile courts to ensure formalin-free fruits for the city residents from the first day of upcoming Ramadan. In the previous years, the mobile courts only fined the offenders, but this time the offenders will be fined as well as sentenced to imprisonment, he said.

"Stern actions will also be taken against the people who will run gambling and sell alcohol in Ramadan," said the mayor. Fruit Traders Association president Faruk Siddique said they would cooperate the corporation.
