

A SHOWER OF FLOWERS

DIVINE brushstrokes in the breeze produce a vibrant picture. Against the backdrop of drab grey concrete, explosions of colours dot the landscape where trees are allowed to thrive. Providing a relief resplendent in the hues of summer, the trees help dress the streets of Dhaka dress in their finest, embellished in the many colours of our many flowers. The caress of the Krishnochura nuanced by the Nagalinga; there is so much to see and so much to feel, only if we know where to look.

Photo: AMRAN HOSSAIN

