

TISHA'S "Dur Pahar"

Tisha is known for being very choosy when it comes to acting in TV dramas for Eid. She has recently completed the shooting for such a drama, "Dur Pahar", where she plays the role of a blind girl. Siam plays the other lead and the drama was directed by Sagar Jahan. In the drama, Tisha lives near Cox's Bazar. Even though she is blind, she is quite content with her life. She sings, sometimes at the beach and other times on the mountains. She also teaches music to the local children. According to Tisha, "I only choose the projects which have much scope for acting. "Dur Pahar" is such a drama. I am sure the audience will really like it and keep it in their minds for a long time."

Bappa Dabbles in Music Production

Bappa Majumder is now trying his hand once again at music production. His first album as a producer, "Emon Holo Koi", was released under the banner of BMG Workstation at the 'Bishsho Shahitto Kendro'. The songs were sung by Hasan Abidur Reza Jewel. Out of the five songs, four are of the romantic genre and the fifth one is Rabindra Sangeet. The songs were written by Shahan Kabondho in Bappa's tune. When asked about the album, Bappa said, "This will be a memorable album for me. I started working in the music industry with Jewel bhai's blessings. He has supported me a lot. And today I am very pleased to have been able to release an album of his from my production house."
