

Kourtney Kardashian won't allow Scott Disick to see their kids

The drinking obsession of Scott Disick, Kourtney Kardashian's ex, has been known for quite some time now, but it seems it has reached a new level recently, enough to the point of Kourtney backlashing against it. It has been reported that Kourtney has banned Scott from seeing their kids again until he does something about his problem. While many have known this couple for breaking up and making up countless of times, they don't seem to have reconciled after their latest breakup in December. Kourtney's statement is a testament to the gravity of the situation. "Sober up or no kids," sums up her feelings towards her ex, at this point.

Karan's 45th Birthday Bash

Karan Johar is a man well known for extravagant and lavish birthday parties filled with his celebrity friends. This year, marking his 45th birthday, was obviously no exception. With the likes of Abhishek Bachchan, Aishwarya Rai Bachchan, Sidharth Malhotra, Katrina Kaif, Alia Bhatt, Varun Dhawan, Deepika Padukone, and of course, the three Khans: Shah Rukh, Aamir and Salman present at the party, it was, needless to say, a star-studded occasion. What's surprising was that Akshay Kumar and Twinkle Khanna attended the late-night party as well, contradicting to their 'early to bed, early to rise' style of living. Even more surprisingly, Karan's good friends Kareena Kapoor and Ranveer Singh didn't attend the party. It was surely a night of mysteries and excitement!

PRIYANKA receives Dadasaheb Phalke Award

After her successful stints in the American drama "Quantico" and the Hollywood movie "Baywatch", Priyanka Chopra has more than made a name for herself in the international show business. Now, she reaches new heights by receiving the prestigious Dadasaheb Phalke Award for the new category of 'Internationally Acclaimed Actress'. Known as 'India's highest award in cinema', the Dadasaheb Phalke Award exudes honor and glory like no other. Of course, since it's a new category, Priyanka is the first ever recipient from that category, which only adds more honor to such an accomplishment.
