KALPANA CHAKMA CASE Next hearing July 18

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Rangamati

A court here yesterday fixed July 18 for the next hearing on no-confidence petition in Kalpana Chakma abduction case.

Senior Judicial Magistrate Quazi Mohammed Mohsen fixed the date for the hearing.

On November 28 last year, Kalpana Chakma's elder brother Kalindi Kumar Chakma filed a petition, rejecting the probe report of the case before the Court of Chief Judicial Magistrate Sabrina Ali.

Before the hearing the investigation officer filed the investigation report on September 7 without indentifying any abductor.

Jewel Dewan, the plaintiff's lawyer and also coordinator of Bangladesh Legal Aid and Services Trust in Rangamati, said he wants proper verdict as soon as possible.

Kalindi Kumar Chakma, elder brother of Kalpana, said he was very disappointed at the repeated extension of time in the case.

Kalpana, former organising secretary of Hill Women's Federation (HWF), an organisation of indigenous women of Chittagong Hill Tracts, was abducted from her Baghaichhari house in Rangamati on June 11 in 1996.
