

'Dangal' receives praise from the President of China, XI JINPING

Everyone knows how successful the critically-acclaimed Dangal has been since its release. However, being the highest grossing non-Hollywood film in China is a record that is truly unprecedented. It has been reported that in the first three weeks of its release in China, Dangal reached a box office hit of more than Rs. 1,100 crore. Xi Jinping, the President of China, has commented on this matter by saying that he has watched the movie and liked what it had to offer in terms of story and characters. It was stated by Subrahmanyam Jaishankar the Foreign Secretary of India that Xi Jinping also spoke highly of Indian films.

Jennifer Lawrence Meets A Near Death Experience!

Jennifer Lawrence recently visited her family in Louisville, Kentucky. However, on the way back on a private plane, it had to make an emergency landing due to engine failure. The Oscar winner is however, completely fine. A source confirmed that while the plane was 31,000 feet above the ground, one of its engines failed. While the pilots were making the emergency landing, the other engine failed as well. Despite both the engines failing, the pilots were able to make a safe landing at Buffalo, New York. After landing, the plane was met with multiple emergency vehicles. Seems like Jennifer Lawrence is one lucky lady!
