

Beach pls

Visit the sea beaches, everyone. No, I'm not being sarcastic at all. Remember all those times you went to Cox's Bazar and got a free tan in the process? Yeah, you don't have to worry about that now. The weather is always overcast, so the T H I C C clouds cover up the sunlight so you can enjoy the view of the kada paani better without the obstruction of a hat. But be wary, the weather can clear up any moment in the next few weeks, so be sure to book your flight/bus/tomtom gari. Or you can just head to Bali, the weather's pretty similar there as well.
