Best Dressed At The IIFA 2017!

IIFA, one of the most talked about award shows in Bollywood, took place recently in the MetLife Stadium in New York. All throughout the week we could see the ever-so-stylish airport looks, ranging from Karan Johar to baby Misha (Shadid Kapoor's daughter). Although we got enough style inspiration from their airport looks, we can't stop gushing over the looks from the main event! Amongst the best dressed this year were Alia Bhatt, Katrina Kaif, Taapsee Pannu and Disha Patani. Alia chose an off-the-shoulder sequined gown by Zuhair Murad.

Flaunting a deep v-neckline, she completed the look with small diamond studs. Katrina looked mesmerizing in a baby blue Snow Crystal Forest gown by Ziad Nakad. She paired it with a diamond ring and earrings from the John Hardy's collection. Seems like sheer sequined dress were total favorites to actresses this year, as Taapsee Pannu and Disha Patani both opted for detailed sequined work on their sheer fabrics. While Taapsee went with black, Disha chose white.

MIRANDA KERR'S Humble Wedding

Miranda Kerr married her longtime boyfriend, Snapchat CEO Evan Spiegel, in their Brentwood home in California back in May 2017. However, the first photos of their wedding ceremony were published last Sunday on Vogue's website and more pictures will also be available in their August issue which comes out on 25th July. The model went with a classic full-sleeved wedding dress, custom made by Dior, and a pearl-encrusted headpiece. The wedding ceremony was rather private since it took place at their home and had less than 50 guests. Miranda Kerr's son with her ex Orlando Bloom were also present at the wedding. Kerr was also quoted saying that she was inspired by Grace Kelly's wedding dress which she wore while marrying Prince Rainier III of Monaco back in 1956.
