

Top 5 fried chicken places in town

What would the world be like without chicken restaurants? How horrific of an image that would be to imagine...

Good for us, Dhaka has restaurants on every streets offering the 'best fried chicken in town!' From luxurious settings to on-the-go places, some restaurants have stood out and made it into our favourites list, all for different reasons.

KENTUCKY FRIED CHICKEN (KFC)

KFC still has a wide customer base and is also a favourite of many due to its secret recipe, a taste hard and sometimes impossible to find anywhere else. Even though it is a bit up there in pricing, the juicy flavours make up for it.

BBQ BANGLADESH

If you have had enough of fried chicken try out BBQ Bangladesh for a change. A South Korean franchise here in Dhaka with a wide selection of chicken dishes like the Gangjeong chicken have made it into our hearts for its unique Korean recipes that have tantalised our taste buds. Something new is always great and when it is with chicken, even better!

To experience a different side of chicken this is the place to be.

NANDO'S

An all-time favourite of most. Even though it has been here in Dhaka for a long time, we still have not gotten tired of it. Mainly because of its spicy mouth-watering chicken which tastes heavenly with their array of different sauces. And all the offers that they keep throwing our way is like cherry on top and makes the experience a whole lot more enjoyable.

BEST FRIED CHICKEN (BFC)

A cult favourite, this one.

With at least one store in every area, and sometimes more, Best Fried Chicken is the go-to place for every chicken lover out there. Their fried chicken is well known for its juiciness and the affordability adds to why everybody loves it so much. Bottom line, there is no reason not to fall in love with it. From the ambience to the food, pretty much everything is on point for BFC.

CP FRIED CHICKEN

This little store has stolen hearts with their more than affordable fried chicken and sausages that taste delectable. Found in every corner you go to, CP has definitely made our lives easier by bringing us friend chicken in the most convenient of ways.

Before CP it was not as easy to find fried chicken other than at big restaurants but now for people who hardly have time to sit down at a restaurant, or people who just love to eat on the go, it is easier to enjoy the same yummy fried chicken.

Overall these few chicken restaurants are all loved by most people for their different preferences, whether it is the taste, budget or convenience. So the next time you are wondering about fried chicken or any form of chicken dishes, you will know where to look.
