

Happy Birthday BOBITA!

Bobita is one of the staples of the Bangladeshi Film Industry. For decades, her fluent acting and beauty garnered her worldwide acclaim. The evergreen actress will celebrate her birthday tomorrow, on 30th July. "I am not doing anything this birthday because I miss my son", said Bobita, who has bitter-sweet feelings about her birthday. "I usually never do any elaborate celebrations; it's usually only spent with close family members. I feel like I am losing a year of my life." However, the actress is visited by underprivileged children, for whom she works round the year. The children try to repay her kindness with singing, dancing and good words. Star Showbiz wishes the legendary beauty queen a very happy birthday!

Mithila Comments on her Divorce

Mithila and Tahsan's divorce is currently the talk of the town. As soon as Tahsan posted about their separation on his Facebook page, their fans started speculating many theories as to why their marriage didn't work and what should be done now. When asked to comment on their fans reaction, Mithila said, "I have tried very hard to make this marriage work but in the end, it just didn't happen. Therefore, we believe that it is best for us to part ways as we are no longer happy together. I would like all my fans to pray for our daughter so we can raise her as a good human being."
