Prime Minister Narendra Modi's government's three years in office with focus on progress in key areas of governance including foreign affairs.

The book describes Bangladesh as a key developmental partner of India under Modi. It refers to recognition and appreciation of Hasina's policy of zero tolerance against terrorism. The book also highlights her leadership in successfully implementing the border accord between the countries. Hasina described the book as a timely look at the progress of the world's largest democracy, and said India continued to be a champion of regional cooperation and development under Narendra Modi.

MATARBARI COAL POWER PLANT Firms want to complete it in less than 7yrs

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A specific target of six years and five months has been set for completing the first unit of the country's largest coal-based power plant at Matarbari in Cox's Bazar.

The announcement came at a programme to celebrate the contract signing between Coal Power Generation Company Bangladesh Ltd and Sumitomo Corporation, Toshiba Corporation and IHI Corporation at a Dhaka hotel.

The Japan-based consortium will set up the 1,200 megawatt ultra super critical thermal power plant about which an agreement was signed on July 27.

The construction company has set the deadline of 2,525 days for full completion of the project with total cost of $4.58 billion. Japan is financing the largest part.

Addressing the programme as the chief guest, Finance Minister AMA Muhiit said Matarbari will no longer be a salt producing area, it will produce electricity.

The area will become a city like Singapore, he said.

The finance minister again assured that the government is determined to root out militancy.

Referring to the militant attack on Holey Artisan Bakery in Gulshan in July last year, he said the government took action and contained it.

According to the government plan, besides a coal-based power plant a semi-deep sea port will be constructed at Moheshkhali where a township will be built.

Japanese Ambassador Masato Watanabe, Japan International Cooperation Agency (Jica) chief representative Takatoshi Nishikata, Prime Minister's Energy Adviser Towfiq-e-Elahi Chowdhury, State Minister for Energy and Power Nasrul Hamid and Prime Minister's Office Principal Coordinator for SDG Affairs Abul Kalam Azad spoke on the occasion.

Besides, representatives of the consortium also spoke.

Qudsia Chowdhury passes away

CITY DESK

Qudsia Chowdhury, wife of former secretary Abdul Mueed Chowdhury, passed away in the early hours yesterday at her home in the capital's Gulshan-1.

Fondly called Ena, she was the daughter of late AZA Reza Karim, a renowned lawyer, said a press release. She left behind four daughters Tulip, Peony, Sumala and Zirwat.

Qudsia was buried at Azampur new graveyard after her namaz-e-janaza was held after Asr prayers.

A qulhwani for the deceased will be held on August 14 at Gulshan Jame Mosque. Her family has requested relatives, friends, and well wishers to join the prayers.

Awareness can reduce

Directorate General of Health Services, said neonatal mortality reduction should be further accelerated to achieve the SDG target.

According to Child Mortality Report (UN-IGME) 2015, every year 74,000 newborn babies die in Bangladesh. According to the Lancet report in 2015, the number of stillbirths is 84,000 annually in the country.

Shamina Sharmin, health expert at Unicef, said a national campaign for newborns should be launched.

Zahid Malik, state minister for health, said the ministry has provided training to midwives and initiated new facilities at medical colleges for saving newborns. They are also working on launching the facilities at district hospitals.

Abul Kalam Azad, director general of DGHS, said alongside reducing newborn mortality, they are also working on reducing mortality rate of mothers.

Dr Shams El Arefin, senior director at icddr, b's maternal and child health division; Kazi Mostafa Sarwar, director general of the Directorate General of Family Planning; Prof Nazmun Nahar, a child specialist; and Mohammad Shahidullah, deputy vice-chancellor and head of neonatology at BSMMU, also spoke.

Abdul Quayum, associate editor of Prothom Alo, moderated the roundtable.

Stop spreading 'propaganda' against Prof Arefin

Demands human chain formed by DU staff
DU CORRESPONDENT

Employees of Dhaka University yesterday formed a human chain on the campus demanding that "propaganda" being spread against Vice Chancellor Prof AAMS Arefin Siddique be immediately stopped.

Under the banner of "Karigari Karmachari Samity", they took part in the human chain held at the base of "Aparajeyo Bangla" on the campus.

The speakers at the event said Prof Arefin Siddique is an employee-friendly VC and has facilitated many development works in the university.

As the university is being run smoothly under his leadership, a quarter is running a smear campaign against him, they alleged.

They also demanded Prof Arefin be reelected as the VC.
