

The rise of the superstar

Fashion in Bangladesh is a unique blend of cultural influences and global trends.

At the world stage we are doing great with our traditional Jamdani, Muslin and intricate embroidery work. But does that mean we do not know how to embrace the new?

Quite the contrary; we love fusion styling and it is eminent in the contemporary undercurrents of the existent fashion scenario.

Here we tried to review best of both the worlds; the new and the old – the classics and the bohemian. There's no winning on any side because both are timeless; strong and confident resonating a strong sense of personal style and superstar lifestyle.
