

Kaushik Ganguly

Director, Actor

She is delicate and strong at the same time. Jaya has created such an aura around herself that she never lets anyone in the set know if she is in any discomfort. Her demeanor, behavior and the way she carries herself is that of a star of the highest pedigree. There is actually not much I have to say about her skills as an actor, the awards and accolades that she keeps getting will speak for themselves. We in Kolkata have a natural tendency to love Bangladesh, and that in my opinion, has increased a lot since we got to know Jaya. She is an artist that binds the two Banglas together in a way. I think she will keep on being one of the most important actors in all of Bengal as long as she lives.
