

Animesh Aich

Director

I have known Jaya for 16 to 17 years now. We have worked together and even acted together. Today, everyone knows who Jaya Ahsan is, and the entirety of Bangladesh is proud of her. I have seen very few people with such extreme love for their craft. We all know how versatile and dedicated she is as an actor, but very few know how humble she is as a person. You will never hear her say anything negative about any actor, director or producer. She has a very normal lifestyle and is a fun-loving person. I wish her best of luck on her adaptation of Debi by Humayun Ahmed.
