Forever in love with white

When we think of the colour white, the first thing that pops in mind is 'purity'. No wonder people from the Middle Eastern and those of the far West prefer to wear it on their special day.

White signifies elegance, innocence, perfection and a lot of other distinctive adjectives. Every person must own some white apparel especially the ladies because a day sporting a white lace sari with honey milk hued pearls can never go wrong!

Here we have a list of suggestions for people who are in love with the popular colour.

Floral prints always look best on a white base.

A white Chantilly lace sari is a 'must have' for every women; as white, cotton punjabis are for every men.

Cream, beige, antique white embroidery always look amazing on vanilla milkshake and moonlight white apparel.

The recent fad is to don capes and jacket kurtis; why not white ones?

White dresses can be easily accessorised with bright colours like blood red, neon green and flaming magenta.

To be specific with white, you can be as creative as you want.

The upside is you don't even have to try to be creative because white will always look good.

So, if you weren't a fan of white as yet, I am sure this issue will make you a convert!
