the capital, the Rab claimed to have picked up Hanif from near the blast site.
Later in the day, Rab-1 claimed that Hanif - a transport businessman who owned three buses and a motorcar - had died in a hospital where they sent him with complaints of chest pain. Sohel's family members were alarmed at the news of Sohel's friend Hanif's death in Rab custody as "the two were picked up together by law enforcers".
After the concerned members of Sohel's family met Rab-1 officials, they denied having Sohel in their custody. "Then we requested the officials to help us find my husband," said Sohel's wife Nipa Begum. When asked whether Rab-1 was holding Sohel, Lt Col Sarwar bin Quasem, commanding officer of the battalion, told The Daily Star, "The family requested us to find him. We tried, but could not find him."
Commenting on the allegation of abduction by law enforcers, Rab's Legal and Media Wing Director Mufti Mahmud Khan said, "We've heard about it. But one has to keep in mind that people were abducted by gangs of criminals posing as DB police and Rab on various occasions. We have arrested members of such gangs at different times."
Earlier, on March 4, weeks before Rab admitted to have detained Hanif, his brother Halim Mridha filed a general diary with Shiddhirganj Police Station stating the abduction incident of Hanif and Sohel on February 27. After Hanif's death in Rab custody, both Halim and Hanif's wife Kulsum Begum told reporters at Hanif's Rayer Bazar house that a group of men, identifying themselves as law enforcers, came to their house by a HiAce microbus on the night Hanif went missing. The men took Hanif's motorbike with them when they left.

Just two days before Hanif's death, on March 15, several men in plain clothes and one of them in Rab uniform brought Hanif to the house in a white HiAce microbus and forced Hanif to sign and hand them over two cheques worth Tk 6.70 lakh. They left with him after they got the cheques, claimed Halim.
Meanwhile, during a visit to Sohel's house in Dhaka's Dhalpur area on Monday, The Daily Star correspondent found Mahin busy with toys his father had bought for him over the years. Sohel's wife Nipa was busy packing their belongings as they can no longer afford to live in Dhaka after the disappearance of the lone breadwinner of the family.
"He never committed any crime... We are living in fear and uncertainty. Mahin had to quit school" she said. "The abductors may not release him as his friend Hanif is dead already," feared Nipa. When asked about his father, Mahin said he had promised him that "he will come home soon." But the family is scheduled to return to their Amtoli home today.

after those. The buyers will take them one or two days ahead of Eid," said Saiful.
He said they sell the bulls after measuring those on a scale. "A customer has to pay Tk 430 per kg for a local bull while Tk 470 per kg for an Indian bull."
"We have a Facebook page from where people can select the bulls. Afterwards, they have to visit the farm to purchase it."
Saiful said they will bring around 200 bulls to Nayabazar and Gabtali cattle markets tomorrow. "But we will not sell those based on the per kg rates."
