TIGERS do it

Shakib stars in stunning 20-run win against Australia for the first time in Test cricket

BISHWAJIT ROY

If greatness is the final destination then Shakib Al Hasan took a long stride towards that after his fabulous all-round performance gave the Tigers a historic maiden Test win against Australia at the Sher-e-Bangla National Stadium in Mirpur yesterday.

If transforming despair into hope is an essential proponent of greatness then the 30-year old ace all-rounder -- who has emerged as one of cricket's top commodities from the sleepy town of Magura -- did

'Thank you for your trust in us'

AL-AMIN

When Shakib Al Hasan took the microphone from the post-match presenter at the home of Bangladesh cricket in Mirpur yesterday and addressed the crowd, he thanked the fans for believing in them.

"You have come to the ground because you believed in us. To be honest last night a few of us did not believe that we could win [the first Test against Australia]. It was only possible because you believed in us," the world's

Influx thru' Rezu Amtali border in Bandarban; IOM estimates 18,000 new arrivals in Bangladesh till Tuesday, locals say more

PINAKI ROY and MOHAMMAD ALI JINNAT

A few thousand Rohingya refugees entered Bangladesh yesterday slipping through the Rezu Aamtali border in Naikkhangchhari of Bandarban.

Most of them were women, children and elderly people.

The Daily Star correspondents saw around 1,000 Rohingyas entering Bangladesh through Rezu Aamtali in two hours yesterday morning. Fleeing their homes in Rakhine state of Myanmar after violence flared up recently, they reached Bangladesh with whatever they could carry.

SHAKHAWAT LITON

Retired Justice Shamsuddin Choudhury Manik has been an old and bitter critique of Chief Justice (CJ) Surendra Kumar Sinha since his disagreement centring his retirement.

He has once again launched a vitriolic attack on Justice Sinha taking advantage of the ruling party's anger regarding the CJ's judgement on the constitutional 16th amendment.
