

Canal or fish ghher?

Cultivation on 400 acres of Patuakhali land hampered

SOHRAB HOSSAIN, Patuakhali

Farming on around 400 acres of land is greatly hampered as an influential family has started fish cultivation in the Mongolbaria canal in Rangabali upazila, stopping natural flow of water.

The family had begun fish cultivation about eight years ago, turning the canal into a fish enclosure locally called gher at Borobaiskhidia union. It is an important resource for farmers as well as the villagers. Around 400 families rely on its water for agricultural and domestic use.

Mongolbaria canal plays a vital role in agricultural activities as it is the only natural source of water in the area. The canal had six branches that carried irrigation water from nearby rivers. The farmers in the locality were very happy as they could irrigate their fields every year.

About eight years ago, Hasan Talukder, Hussein Talukder and Masum Talukder closed all six branch canals, constructing cross dams at different points on the canal to cultivate fish. The cross dams stopped natural flow of water, depriving farmers of water for irrigating their Aus and Aman paddy crops.

Thirty-eight farmers submitted a complaint to the deputy commissioner (DC) on February 6 this year, requesting him to take steps to free the canal.

Later, Chan Mia, union assistant land officer, submitted a report to the DC through the upazila nirbahi officer (INO) on February 27, recommending that steps be taken to remove the fish enclosures to pave the way for creating natural flow of water. The DC asked the UNO to take action in this regard.

The woes of the local community regarding the canal began 15 years ago when Bangladesh Water Development Board blocked both entrances to the canal with flood control embankment, which starved the canal of water during the dry season and resulted in flooding in the area during the monsoon. Water flow returned to normal after a sluice gate was built to connect the canal with the Tatalali canal.

After instruction from the DC, the then UNO ARB Sadique Rahman sent a letter to Borobaiskhidia UP chairman asking him to take steps in this regard but the chairman ignored it.

Sadique sent another letter to the UP chairman on April 19, asking him to free the canal within seven days, but in vain.

"Cultivation on over 400 acres of land depends on the canal water," says local farmer Jahangir Talukder. "For the last eight years we have not been able to grow Aus or Aman paddy, even near goats or cows, for lack of access to water."

Hasan Talukder said, "I took lease of the canal for a year from the Youth Development Department in 2008 and since then I have been cultivating fish in the canal."

"I did not apply to renew the lease because the authorities concerned stopped giving lease from 2009," he said.

Rangabali acting UNO MD Rezau Karim said steps would be taken to free the canal from occupiers considering the interest of the local farmers.

Cross dams and fish enclosures have been built in the Mongolbaria canal, hampering cultivation on land.

Tortured youth found 9.5 tonnes relief

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Nilphamari

Police recovered the body of a youth from inside Magura Union Parishad (UP) office in Nilphamari's Kishoreganj upazila early yesterday.

The deceased is Al-Amin, 35, son of Azizur Rahman of Borovita village.

Quoting deceased's family members, Officer-in-Charge (OC) Zahid Rashid of Kishoreganj Police Station said Al-Amin's in-laws mercilessly tortured him when he went to their house to meet his wife on Tuesday night.

Locals, however, informed the police that after torturing him severely, Al-Amin's in-laws handed him over to Magura UP Chairman Mahmudul Hasan Shibab, who ordered his men to confine the youth at the chairman's office.

Later around 4:00am, the UP chairman phoned the OC and informed him that Al-Amin committed suicide by hanging himself inside the office.

The deceased's father Azizur Rahman alleged that his son died due to the barbaric torture by his in-laws.

while others had 14 or 20kgs of rice in them. Rab seized the underweight sacks.

Executive Magistrate Alam further said that after analysing the CSD documents, they found discrepancies. "We have found a record which shows that 258 tonnes of rice was supplied to Dhaka district Anar but we came to know that they only received 75 tonnes so far," he said.

He further said that they are sending the documents to the Anti-Corruption Commission, recommending steps against persons responsible.

Regarding this, lawmaker Syed Abu Hossain told this newspaper that a section of dishonest CSD officials are responsible for the incident and action needs to be taken against them.

Contacted, Humayun Kabir, manager of CSD granary, told The Daily Star that Rab stopped two trucks carrying 30 tonnes of rice just after it crossed the main gate having completed all formalities. Later, after measuring the trucks yesterday at 2:00pm, they found 9.5 tonnes of rice missing.

"We have already arranged the 30 tonnes of rice and handed it over to the concerned party for relief at 6:00pm yesterday," he said, adding that the granary in charge (GI) released the fresh batch of rice after measuring it. It was then loaded into the truck and a report was sent to the manager's office.

"I believe a section of workers and the GI might be responsible behind it and we are helping the Rab magistrate to take action against the perpetrators," he added.

Kabir further said that they have already formed a three member committee to investigate the incident and he will be leading the panel. The two other members of the committee are an assistant manager and inspector of CSD.

MATHBARIA BNP LEADER MURDER 17 pro-AL men sued

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Prologur

Twenty-three people, including 17 pro-Awami League men were sued over the murder of a local BNP leader in Mathbaria upazila of the district yesterday.

Habibur Rahman Talukder, a leader of Dhanaisa union unit of BNP, was found dead near the toilet of Tushkhali High School on Monday night.

Police arrested Masum Talukder, one named accused. Locals said Habibur had a conflict with UP chairman and Awami League (AL) leader Harun Ur Rashid Talukder and his relative UP member Idris Talukder, also a local ruling party leader.

Habibur was picked up by the cohorts of Harun and Idris from near Tushkhali Bazar on Sunday after an altercation between the sons of the victim and Idris in the morning. The victim's family members alleged that Mathbaria police refused to register a general diary (GD) with the police station on that day when they wanted to file the suit.

Refuting the allegation, Officer-in-Charge KM Tariqul Islam said Habibur's wife Maika Begum filed a GD on Monday and police accepted it.

Habibur's son Md Hafizur Rahman filed the case against 17 pro-Awami League men including Harun and Idris Talukder and six unnamed people.

BGB-BSF friendship meet held

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Dinajpur

A friendship meeting between the border guards of Bangladesh and India was held at Hill Land Post in Dinajpurer yesterday.

Family members of Border Guard Bangladesh (BGB) and Indian Border Security Force (BSF) officials also attended the meeting. Dinajpur BGB Sector Commander Col Zakir Hossain and TG Simit, DIG of BSF's Royganj Sector, led their respective sides.

Col Zakir said such meeting will help improve the brotherly relations between the two neighbouring countries.

"Also our Turkish Coordination and Cooperation Agency (TİKA) head and our foreign minister, who is currently in Azerbaijan, will head for Bangladesh to meet, contact and provide aid opportunities there," he said.

The UN yesterday estimated that nearly 1,46,000 Rohingyas crossed into Bangladesh since August 25 as tens of thousands more were internally displaced.

The Turkish first lady and the foreign minister will fly to Cox's Bazar this morning to visit the tens of thousands of Rohingyas population now living in makeshift camps there. A delegation headed by Foreign Minister Mevlut Cavusoglu and TİKA President Serdar Cam will deliver the aid in person to Rohingyas who live in the camps in Cox's Bazar and surrounding areas, Turkish media reports.

Foreign Minister AH Mahmood Ali and State Minister for Foreign Affairs Shahriar Alam will accompany the Turkish dignitaries during their visit to Rohingyas in Cox's Bazar. After coming back from Cox's Bazar, the Turkish first lady and the foreign minister will call on Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina and discuss the ongoing Rohingyas crisis to find a lasting solution to this decades-long humanitarian crisis.

On August 31, Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan called his Bangladesh counterpart Abdul Hamid and talked about the current state of the Rohingya crisis. The Turkish president supported measures to ease the Rohingyas issue taken by Bangladesh.

Erdogan expressed concern over the ongoing violence in the Rakhine State and assured the Bangladesh president of full support and cooperation to Dhaka.
