

EMBEZZLING Tk 72 CR

Ctg businessman sent to jail upon surrender

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Cx
A Chittagong court yesterday sent a businessman to jail in a case filed by the Anti-Corruption Commission (ACC) on charge of embezzling Tk 72 crore from Jamuna Bank Ltd.

The accused businessman is Md Abu Sayed Samrat, 38, managing director of Sayed Food Limited and owner of Siddique Traders in the city's Khatunganj area.

The court of Chittagong Metropolitan Sessions Judge Md Shahe Nour sent him to jail after he surrendered before the court, said Inspector Amran Hossain of the ACC.

"Earlier, he secured bail from High Court for six weeks and surrendered before the court as the bail ended on Monday," said Inspector Amran Hossain.

The other accused of the case - Manjulur Ahsan Chowdhury, former manager of Jamuna Bank's Khatunganj branch - is on the run, added the ACC Inspector.

Duta condemns atrocities on Rohingyas

DUH CORRESPONDENT

Dhaka University Teachers' Association (DUTA) yesterday condemned the atrocities on Rohingyas in Myanmar and demanded immediate stop to such violence.

They also urged the United Nations and international community to take steps to stop the barbaric acts to end regional peace.

In a statement, the association demanded that the Rohingya refugees be taken back to their homeland in Myanmar from Bangladesh.

Meanwhile, at a recent meeting with Canadian International Development Minister Marie-Claude Bibeau, Foreign Minister AH Mahmood Ali said since August 25, more than 4,00,000 Rohingyas have so far come to Bangladesh and are still coming.

As of now, Bangladesh is hosting over 8,00,000 Rohingyas, he added.

As part of its campus activation programme, the export idea contest "Rise High Bangladesh" reached Rajshahi University of Engineering and Technology (RUET) yesterday. The winning students pose with gifts. The campaign will be held in 15 universities all over the country.

The government yesterday formed a three-member Press Appellate Board with Bangladesh Press Council Chairman Justice Mohammad Moinul Uddin Ahmed as its ex officio chairman.

The rest two members are the joint secretary (press) of the Ministry of Information, and Press Council member.
