

AG urges affluent to support poor

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Munshiganj

Attorney General Mahbub Alam yesterday urged affluent people to stand beside the poor and destitute people.

"If wealthy people come forward to help the poor and insolvent people, their plights will be reduced and equilibrium take place in the society," he said.

The attorney general was inaugurating a free medical camp at Baligaon in Munshiganj.

Medilive Specialised Hospital in Dhaka organised the camp where 12 physicians treated over 500 patients and they were given medicines.

The hospital director Dr Morsheda Parvin also spoke on the occasion. Earlier in the day, Mahbub Alam distributed clothes among poor people in Mosodgaon Moni Hrishipara area in Louhajang upazila.
