

A Tazia procession is being brought out in Tigerpass area in Chittagong city on Saturday, marking the holy Ashura, commemorating the martyrdom of Hazrat Imam Hussain (RA).

Holy Ashura observed

UNB, Dhaka

Ashura, commemorating the martyrdom of Hazrat Imam Hussain (RA), was observed across the country on Sunday with due religious fervour and solemnity.

On this day in the Hijri year of 61, Hazrat Imam, the grandson of Prophet Hazrat Muhammad (PBUH), along with his family members and 72 followers embraced martyrdom at the hands of Yazid's soldiers in the desert of Karbala to uphold the teachings of the Prophet (SM).

The day was a public holiday.

President Abdul Hamid and Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina had issued separate messages on the occasion.

Shia community members brought out Tazia processions in the capital in the morning marking the day.

The Tazia procession started from Imbarara Husaini Dalan in Old Dhaka with police escort.

Snake charmer hacked to death

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Savar

A river gypsy, locally known as Bede, died at a Savar hospital, outside the capital, early yesterday after being hacked by unidentified miscreants on Saturday night.

Sohel Mia, 29, son of Nuru Hossen of Savar's Porabari area, was a snake charmer.

Family sources said six men hacked Soheli in his back with sharp weapons in Bokterpur Balu Ghat area when he was returning home along with his two friends after watching the immersion of Hindu idols at Nama Bazar Asram.

Soheli was rushed to Savar Enam Medical College Hospital. Savar police said the incident could be a result of previous enmity.

'Drug addict' throws acid on wife, mother-in-law

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

An alleged drug addict threw acid on his wife and mother-in-law over family feud at Dayaganj in Gandaria in the capital last night.

Parveen Begum, 45, and her daughter Rubina Akter, 28, were rushed to the burn unit of Dhaka Medical College Hospital with severe acid burns on their face, chest, neck and hands, DMCH sources said.

Rubina Hossain, brother-in-law of Rubina, told The Daily Star that Rubina's husband, who is a mechanic, used to frequently beat Rubina as she protested his drug habit.

In response, Rubina went to her mother's residence at Dayaganj a few weeks back, he said.

Yesterday, Rubina's husband went to his in-law's house around 10:00pm and fled the scene after throwing acid on sleeping Rubina and her mother.

Officer-in-Charge Mahub Alam of Gandaria Police Station said they were informed about the incident and were looking into the matter.

Student found dead in Dhaka mess

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

An university student was found dead in his mess in Basundhara Residential Area of Dhaka early Sunday.

The body of Sajal Mahmud, 23, a computer science and engineering student of North South University, was found hanging from the grilles of an opening in a toilet, said police.

His roommate and cousin Jibon broke open the toilet door around 6:00am with no response from inside, said Bhatara Police Station SI Ziaul Alam.

The SI said Sajal and Jibon used to share a flat with five others, who were outside the residence on the day.

Dhaka Medical College morgue sources said they primarily found that it was a suicide.

Sajal's father Abdul Jalil, who is from Jhalakathi, filed an unnatural death case.

LOSING EYESIGHT IN POLICE ACTION

Siddiquir starts job as telephone operator

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Government Titumir College student Siddiquir Rahman, who lost his eyesight in police action, yesterday joined state-owned Essential Drugs Company Limited as a telephone operator.

Siddiquir's friends, his elder brother and a teacher accompanied him during the joining around 9:30am, said Siddiquir's classmate Sheikh Farid.

"It is a new chapter of my life. Everyone is happy that I joined here," Siddiquir told The Daily Star thanking the government and the media.

Talking to this correspondent in the afternoon, Siddiquir said he received a warm welcome from his colleagues.

"My colleagues are helping me in receiving and making phone calls so that I can learn it quickly," he added.

On September 13, Health and Family Welfare Minister Mohammed Nasim handed over the appointment letter to Siddiquir.

According to the letter, his gross salary will be Tk 13,000 along with other allowances. If the job is regularised after a year, it will be Tk 23,000.

As per Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina's directive, the government sent Siddiquir to India for treatment on July 27. Doctors tried in vain to restore his eyesight.

On July 20, Siddiquir, a third-year political science student, was injured when a policeman lobbed a teargas canister directly at him during a demonstration of the students of seven Dhaka University-affiliated colleges in the city's Shahbagh area.
