Woman found dead in Rangpur

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Dinajpur

A woman was found dead in her Fakirpara residence in Mithapukur upazila of Rangpur yesterday.

Quoting family members, police said Jahrul Islam, 30, had been torturing his wife Rokeya Begum, 22, since they got married a year ago. On Monday, Jahrul, who is currently unemployed, beat Rokeya indiscriminately and the next morning, villagers found Rokeya's body in her bed.

Mithapukur police sent the body bearing marks of injury to Rangpur Medical College Hospital morgue for autopsy.

Jahrul and his family, including his father Abdur Razzak, went into hiding after the incident.

He said public leaders have immense responsibilities to strengthen democracy at the grassroots level while people have the key task of choosing competent candidates in elections.

Abdul Hamid said, "Tolerance, mutual respect and strengthening all democratic institutions help flourish democracy."

He also called upon all to make the unity stronger to uphold the spirit of the Liberation War and face the conspiracies of anti-independence and anti-state elements.

The president said all, irrespective of party affiliations, opinions and castes, must come forward together against militancy and terrorism.

He advised students to gain knowledge, practise honesty and be brave to become world-class citizens.

Earlier in the day, the president laid the foundation stones of several development projects in Katiadi upazila.

has been damaged severely due to fresh influx of Rohingya refugees since August 25.

The parliamentary body was also informed that the Rohingyas have so far damaged forest properties worth Tk 151 crore in Ukhia and Kutupalong in Cox's Bazar.

Emerging from the meeting, Hasan Mahmud, chief of the JS body, said: "Forest department has informed us that environment of Cox's Bazar suffered irreparable losses due to wholesale destruction of forest and hills by the Rohingyas people."

He also said millions of tonnes of woods are being used by the Rohingyas refugees for cooking each day.

"We have asked the ministry to ensure energy-friendly cooking system at the Rohingyas camps so they do not destroy woods," he also said.

Hasan, also a ruling Awami League MP, said the government has given shelter to Rohingyas refugees on humanitarian grounds. "But we cannot let them destroy our environment."

Against this backdrop, he said internal and international tourism flow centring Cox's Bazar might suffer.

In yesterday's meeting, the parliamentary body recommended that the forest department take immediate measures to plant adequate trees in Cox's Bazar.

Recover govt ponds
