The International Monetary Fund at the headquarters of the IMF at Washington, DC, said in a press release.

In her speech, Shirin said, "Bangladesh has set a unique example before the global community with the country's economic development under the leadership of Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina."

But the country needs all out cooperation of the international community in its humanitarian assistance and repatriation efforts for the huge population of the forcibly displaced Myanmar citizens, she said.

She urged the developed countries to come forward and save the high-risk countries from natural disasters caused by climate change.

Tribute to a brave soul

Nuruddin, deputy manager of JBF Digital Trading Company Limited, said, "My son always helped others without asking for anything in return."

"Even on that day, Talha greeted me before heading out and told me to take care. He also told his sisters to study...now all I have left is his memory..." Nuruddin was having difficulties finishing his session. Sabur Khan, chairman of the university, said, "Talha's act of bravery is rare. We want to keep on remembering him."

The DIU authorities said they will take an initiative to nominate Talha's name for the "Faraaz Hossain Courage Award" this year.

The purpose of the award is to recognise acts of exceptional courage by individuals setting examples of empathy for fellow human beings, to encourage the spirit of bravery among youth, the very spirit that Faraaz inspires.

Twenty-year-old Faraz Ayaz Hossain refused to desert his friends and was brutally killed by terrorists during the July 1 terror attack last year at Holy Artisan Bakery in Dhaka.

Oxfam, said housing without security and sanitation would not work.

Rafiqul Alam Mollah, executive director of Unnayan Sangha, said the real needs of the displaced are often overlooked when housing is provided according to the donor's design.

Hence, a standard needs to be set for designing housing for the persons displaced by disaster, said MA Halim, director of Bangladesh Red Crescent Society.

MD Reaz Ahmed, director general of Department of Disaster Management; Mahbuba Nasreen, director of Institute of Disaster Management and Vulnerability Studies of Dhaka University; and Anisul Karim, capacity development specialist of UNDP, spoke among others with Shabek Nahi, country director of Christian Aid, in the chair.
