Journalists slam gov't for not forming new wage board

BSS, Dhaka

Journalists representing mainstream print and electronic media yesterday warned of "unpleasant consequences for further dillydallying" in forming the 9th Wage Board for the media workers as they staged a demonstration in front of the Bangladesh Secretariat.

"The wage board was due to be constituted long ago... the consequence of the further 'dillydally' will not be pleasant," A Dhaka Union of Journalists (DUJ) statement quoted Bangladesh Federal Union of Journalists (BFUJ) President Manjurul Ahsan Bulbul as saying at the protest.

He also accused the authorities concerned of citing lame excuses for the delay, even though the owners had given names of their representatives.

Dhaka Sub-Editors Council organised the protest.

Muktamoni better now: Doctors

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The right arm of Muktamoni has started to show improvements, say doctors.

The arm has been left without bandage and frequent dressing is being conducted for further improvement, they said.

Earlier on October 8, the 12-year-old girl was operated on at Dhaka Medical College Hospital for the fourth time. On October 10, skin grafting was done for transplantation of skin on the arm.

Samanta Lal Sen, national coordinator of Burn and Plastic Surgery Unit at DMCH, said, "Bandage-free dressing is required after skin grafting."

"The condition of her arm is far better than before," said the doctor, adding that another surgery will be conducted alongside her chest after reviewing her physical condition.

Muktamoni, from Satkhira, underwent the first successful surgery at DMCH on August 12.

A tumour of nearly three kilograms was removed from the arm in the operation. Later, two more operations were conducted to remove tumours from her hand, arm and shoulder.

Our staff correspondent reports, Jatiya Sangsad Speaker Dr Shirin Sharmin Chaudhury yesterday urged the international community to play an effective role in resolving the Rohingya crisis.

She said this while addressing a briefing at UN Headquarters in New York, according to a press statement from Bangladesh mission to the UN.

BSS adds, Russian parliamentary foreign affairs committee chairman and upper house senator Konstantin Kosachev has assured that the Rohingya crisis would be taken up with more seriousness in their parliament. The assurance came at a meeting with a visiting Bangladesh delegation led by Deputy Speaker Md Fazle Rabbi Miah yesterday.
